North Carolina Department of Public Safety Prisons

Policy Summary Sheet

Restrictive Housing for Control Purposes

Chapter : C
Section : .1300

Current Review Date:	August 10, 2018
Reviewed By:	Auxiliary Services
Next Review Due:	August 10, 2019

Current Revision Date:	August 10, 2018
Supersedes Revision Dated:	November 6, 2017

Current Revision Summary (if applicable):

The following change(s) are effective:

All changes are highlighted.

Specific Changes:

.1301 General

Page 1 In (b) language has been added noting restrictive housing for control purposes will be authorized for any offender found guilty of a conduct rule violation involving a staff assault resulting in physical injury.

.1302 Procedure

Page 3 In (e) language has been added, specifically, "due to an assault on staff resulting in physical injury will have their assignments reviewed by a Director's Classification Committee at 12 months. Subsequent reviews will be conducted on an annual basis." "If an offender was placed in Restrictive Housing due to an assault on staff resulting in physical injury, the upon release from Restrictive Housing for Control Purposes, the offender will be placed in the Restrictive Diversion Unit (RDU) Program."

Karen R. Pardue

Interim Division Policy Coordinator — 8-10-18 Date