

Bernadine Anthony

Reverend Bernadine Anthony was born and raised in Kinston, North Carolina and is a recent graduate of Duke University Divinity School with a Master of Divinity Degree. She accepted her ministerial call while working as a manager for Grime Control Cleaning and Recycling Service, a 30 year old company owned by her brother and sister-in-law, where she was charged with training and mentoring staff of diverse employees and managing the company's daily operations located in Raleigh. She received her BA degree in mass communications and broadcast news from N. C. A&T State University in Greensboro.

Reverend Anthony is currently the 2020 Census Faith-Based Partnership Specialist Team Leader for the state of North Carolina. She is responsible for educating, encouraging, engaging and inspiring partners and community members on the importance of participating in 2020 Census. "We Are In This Together" is the theme for the N.C. 2020 Census Faith-Based Initiative which is the basis of the message Rev. Anthony proclaims when sharing the importance of completing the Census Questionnaire.
