A Nineteenth-Century Quaker Family Farmstead in the North Carolina Piedmont: Data Recovery Excavations at the Trogdon-Squirrel Creek Site, Randolph County, North Carolina.

D. Brad Hatch (Dovetail Cultural Resource Group)
Introduction

- 1792: Catherine Trogdon Hammer and Abraham Hammer
- 1826: Levisia Hammer and John Trogdon, Jr.
- 1875: John M. Trogdon and Nancy Trogdon
- 1883: Peter Glasgow
- 1918: Samantha Jane Moore
- Post-1920: Out of Family
Identification and Previous Investigations
Data Recovery Plan/ Research Questions

• Agriculture and Rural Lifeways
• Landscape
• Family and Land Histories
Methodology

• Mapping
• Metal Detecting
• Soil Chemistry
• Random Test Units
• Block Excavation
• Feature Excavation
Results: Buildings and Features (Dwelling)
Results: Buildings and Features (Outbuilding)
Results: Buildings and Features (Fences)
Results: Buildings and Features (Road)
Results: Artifacts
Results: Artifacts
Interpretations: Dating
Interpretations: Landscape Use
Interpretations: Local Economy
Conclusions/Continuing Research
Thank You

• NCDOT (Brian Overton and Matt Wilkerson)
• OSA (John Mintz)
• Hal and Eleanor Pugh
• Tommy Cranford
• Mary Farrell
• Jerry Darnell