1. 1764, May. Memorial of Arthur Dobbs, Governor of North Carolina to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury. Concerns the refusal of the Assembly to raise a body of troops to serve under Amherst in 1762 and the subsequent expenditure of £400 out of the private fortune of Dobbs in order to raise the necessary recruits and appoint a proper commander and captains at Ft. Johnston, as well as garrisoning the fort with 40 men. Dobbs drew two bills of £200 each upon the agents in London to be paid to his order to reimburse him for the sums advanced and to be paid out of the money granted by Parliament for the use of the province. The agents have refused to honor the bills and the Assembly have also refused to pay him, even though reprimanded by order of the King. Dobbs asks the Lords of the Treasury to order the agents holding the money granted by Parliament to honor the bills or reimburse him in some other manner.
