About Longleaf Film Festival

Longleaf Film Festival is an annual free-to-attend juried festival that features stories that connect us all—documentary and narrative shorts and features that demonstrate a Tar Heel State connection, through the people involved in making them or through their subject. We believe that making films is making history.

Sponsored and administered by the North Carolina Museum of History, this year's festival will take place on Friday, May 11, and Saturday, May 12, 2018. For information about Longleaf 2018, call 919-807-7965, access LongleafFilmFestival.com or follow on Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram.

About the NC Museum of History, a Smithsonian Affiliate

The NC Museum of History is located at 5 E. Edenton Street in downtown Raleigh. Hours are Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, noon to 5 p.m. The museum collects and preserves artifacts of North Carolina history and educates the public on the history of the state and the nation through exhibits and educational programs. Each year more than 400,000 people visit the museum to see some of the 150,000 artifacts in the museum collection. The Museum of History, within the Division of State History Museums, is part of the NC Department of Natural and Cultural Resources.
