

*North Carolina Museum of History Special Event Rental Rates

The Museum of History offers affordable rates during both open and closed hours for your group's event. The Museum is classified as open every Monday through Saturday, from 9:00am to 5:00pm and every Sunday, from 12:00pm to 5:00pm. Closed hours are between 5:30pm and 10:30pm, Monday through Sunday. Pricing available for events that fall outside stated hours. We welcome you to choose any of the following rental spaces, depending on your group's size and the necessary services to be provided.

Ask about our special rates for Non-Profits and NC Museum Members.

The Museum Lobby can accommodate up to 300 guests for a standing reception and up to 250 for a sit-down dinner. With room for your DJ and a dance floor, the lobby allows guests to enjoy music and dancing throughout the evening.

Pricing: 2 hr. $1405.00 / 3 hr. $1840.00 / 4 hr. $2275.00 / 5 hr. $2710.00

The Demonstration Gallery is a unique setting, perfect for small meetings and lunches. Surrounded by three glass walls, the "glass box" has a wonderful view overlooking Bicentennial Plaza and the Legislative Building.

Pricing: Open hours $350.00 / Closed hours $1085.00

Daniels Auditorium, with a seating capacity of 300 and state-of-the-art audiovisual equipment, is the ideal setting for presentations, large meetings, and performances.

Pricing: Open Hours $500.00 Closed hours $1235.00 (AV not included)

Cashion Boardroom, named for Dr. Jerome C. "Pop" Cashion, a friend to history and historians, this space is a wonderful room for small corporate meetings. The room is equipped with a 70" Aquos Interactive Whiteboard. The conference table seats 16 was designed and constructed by former North Carolina governor Michael F. Easley from salvaged heart of pine from Cannon Mills/Pillowtex No. 2 textile mill.

Pricing: Open hours only $225.00

*rates subject to change