

Media Advisory: Halloween Parade

Raleigh, N.C. – Calling all costumed kiddos and the young at heart! The North Carolina Museum of History, together with the North Carolina Museum of History Associates, will host a day of food, fun and spooky delight on Tuesday, October 31.

Come show off your costume! Kid-friendly crafts begin at 11 a.m., and the food truck So Good Pupusas will be parked on Edenton Street for lunch from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The museum will also host a flying aerialist and City of Raleigh fire truck on Bicentennial Plaza.

Starting at 2 p.m., First Lady of North Carolina Kristin Cooper will act as parade grand marshal and lead the Helping Hand Mission Marching Band and parade attendees from the top of Bicentennial Plaza to the Executive Mansion, as NC state government employees observe and cheer from the sidelines. Once at the Executive Mansion, parade-goers will receive a special treat.

Tuesday, October 31, is a teacher workday for traditional schools in Wake County.
