MEDIA ADVISORY: North Carolina Museum of History Closed to the Public Today

The North Carolina Museum of History is closed to the public today, Monday, January 8, 2018, due to a sprinkler system pipe leakage that has impacted the building’s fire suppression system. Check our website at ncmuseumofhistory.org for ongoing updates about reopening to the public. Staff are on duty and may be reached by phone or e-mail.

Thank you for your patience. We hope to see you again soon at the North Carolina Museum of History!

About the N.C. Museum of History, a Smithsonian Affiliate
The N.C. Museum of History is located at 5 E. Edenton Street in downtown Raleigh. Hours are Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, noon to 5 p.m. The museum collects and preserves artifacts of North Carolina history and educates the public on the history of the state and the nation through exhibits and educational programs. Each year more than 400,000 people visit the museum to see some of the 150,000 artifacts in the museum collection. The Museum of History, within the Division of State History Museums, is part of the N.C. Department of Natural and Cultural Resources.
