

REMINDER:

Please Join Us for a Media Preview of the Exhibit
American Red Cross: Healing the Warrior's Heart through Art at the
N.C. Museum of History, 5 East Edenton St., Raleigh
Friday, June 23, from 10 a.m. to noon

*Doughnuts and coffee served before remarks begin at 10 a.m.; a brief exhibit tour starts at 10:30 a.m.
(If you can't stay the entire time, come when it suits you.)*

IMAGE: Medevac, USMC Wounded Warrior Battalion–East, courtesy of American Red Cross, Eastern North Carolina Region.

Please join us Friday, June 23, at 10 a.m. for a pre-opening media tour of American Red Cross: Healing the Warrior's Heart through Art. Red Cross of Eastern N.C. Regional CEO Barry Porter, Red Cross of Eastern N.C. Regional Director of Service to the Armed Forces (SAF) Joshua Cain, and art therapy instructor Craig Bonewill will be available for interviews.

The Red Cross of Eastern North Carolina, in honor of celebrating their centennial this year, is partnering with the N.C. Museum of History to open American Red Cross: Healing the Warrior's Heart through Art.

This exhibit is a fresh and timely take on a national issue that resonates deeply throughout our state.

The exhibit officially opens Sunday, June 25, in the museum's third-floor gallery space, adjacent to the new North Carolina and World War I exhibit.

We hope to see you for the Media Preview on June 23!

UPDATE > ADDITIONAL INVITATION: All media are welcome to attend the Centennial Celebration event on June 24 from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. at the museum. Seven of the Marine artists will be in attendance, and press will have time to speak with them from 6-7 p.m. during the reception, and again at 8 p.m. when the exhibit is unveiled.

Please RSVP by Thursday, June 22, to Elizabeth Beal at 919-807-7943 or Elizabeth.Beal@ncdcr.gov.

Please contact Elizabeth if you want a parking pass.

