

Small Stuff/Big Stories Follow Along Worksheet

Students may use this worksheet during the LIVE! event or can complete it when the program ends. Use the word bank when needed and share the Discussion Topics to continue the conversation.

[Note: not all words are needed to complete the worksheet.]

Shell Castle Island Lighthouse	Corncob Candle	Rosenwald	Stick	Grey
Battle of Moores Creek	Krispy Kreme	Blue	Cheerwine	Blackbeard
Vicks Vapor Rub	Colonoware	Texas Pete	Atlatl	Goody's Powder

- The rock is part of a tool called an _____ that allowed people to
 - Dig bigger holes for planting corn.
 - Weigh down hides of deer for tanning.
 - Hunt animals from a greater distance, improving the food supply.
- Who's that? What ruler of England is featured on the 1583 six pence?
 - King Henry VIII
 - Abraham Lincoln
 - Elizabeth I
- _____ is probably the best-known pirate to sail off the North Carolina coast.
True or False: Pirates sought only gold and jewels as treasure.
- American Indians adapted parts of European ways that were beneficial to them, while maintaining their own culture. _____, a type of earthenware, demonstrates this.
- What is the artifact that shows a connection between a West African tradition and people of African descent in North Carolina? _____
- _____ was fought between British soldiers and North Carolina citizens who believed the colony should remain part of England, and North Carolina citizens who believed that the colony should be independent.

7. True or False: Before about 1850, shoes did not have a left or right orientation.

8. The _____ can be seen on the pitcher made for John Gray Blount around 1790.
True or False: You can visit this place when you visit the North Carolina coast.

9. Union uniforms were generally this color: _____; while Confederate uniforms were often this color: _____.

10. The _____ demonstrates how people got by during the hard times of the Civil War time period.

11. Can you name three other NC-made products besides Pepsi?

12. _____ schools were established to provide African Americans better educational opportunities during a time of segregation.

13. True or False: People in North Carolina worried about Axis aircraft flying over the state during World War II.

14. This civil rights leader spoke in Raleigh at Reynolds Coliseum in 1966.
 - a. Martin Luther King, Jr.
 - b. Pauli Murray
 - c. Rosa Parks

Discussion Topics:

- If you could save one “thing” that would be seen 150 years from now, what would it be? Why?
- Share a tradition from your family. Research this tradition’s origins.
- Look at your shoes. List three things they say about you.
- We think of “recycling” as a contemporary environmental effort. Can you point to different ways people in our past recycled?
- How was the Battle of Moores Creek like a “civil war”?

Small Stuff/Big Stories Follow Along Worksheet Answer Key

Shell Castle Island Lighthouse	Corncob Candle	Rosenwald	Stick	Grey
Battle of Moores Creek	Krispy Kreme	Blue	Cheerwine	Blackbeard
Vicks Vapor Rub	Colonoware	Texas Pete	Atlatl	Goody's Powder

15. The rock is part of a tool called an atlatl that allowed people to
- Dig bigger holes for planting corn.
 - Weigh down hides of deer for tanning.
 - Hunt animals from a greater distance, improving the food supply.
16. Who's that? What ruler of England is featured on the 1583 six pence?
- King Henry VIII
 - Abraham Lincoln
 - Elizabeth I
17. Blackbeard is probably the best-known pirate to sail off the North Carolina coast.
True or False: Pirates sought only gold and jewels as treasure.
18. American Indians adapted parts of European ways that were beneficial to them, while maintaining their own culture. Colonoware, a type of earthenware, demonstrates this.
19. What is the artifact that shows a connection between a West African tradition and people of African descent in North Carolina? Stick
20. The Battle of Moores Creek Bridge was fought between British soldiers and North Carolina citizens who believed the colony should remain part of England, and North Carolina citizens who believed that the colony should be independent.

21. True or False: Before about 1850, shoes did not have a left or right orientation.
22. The Shell Castle Island Lighthouse can be seen on the pitcher made for John Gray Blount around 1790.
True or False: You can visit this place when you visit the North Carolina coast.
23. Union uniforms were generally this color: blue; while Confederate uniforms were often this color: grey.
24. The corncob candle demonstrates how people got by during the hard times of the Civil War time period.
25. Can you name three other NC-made products besides Pepsi? [Multiple Answers correct]
Krispy Kreme; Cheerwine, Vicks Vapor Rub; Goody's Powders, Texas Pete
26. Rosenwald schools were established to provide African Americans better educational opportunities during a time of segregation.
27. True or False: People in North Carolina worried about Axis aircraft flying over the state during World War II.
28. This civil rights leader spoke in Raleigh at Reynolds Coliseum in 1966.
- Martin Luther King, Jr.
 - Pauli Murray
 - Rosa Parks

Discussion Topics:

- If you could save one “thing” that would be seen 150 years from now, what would it be? Why?
- Share a tradition from your family. Research this tradition’s origins.
- Look at your shoes. List three things they say about you.
- We think of “recycling” as a contemporary environmental effort. Can you point to different ways people in our past recycled?
- How was the Battle of Moores Creek like a “civil war”?