WHEREAS, on March 10, 2020, the undersigned issued Executive Order No. 116 which declared a State of Emergency to coordinate the state’s response and protective actions to address the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) public health emergency and to provide for the health, safety, and welfare of residents and visitors located in North Carolina (“Declaration of a State of Emergency”); and

WHEREAS, on March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared COVID-19 a global pandemic; and

WHEREAS, on March 13, 2020, the President of the United States declared the ongoing COVID-19 outbreak a pandemic of sufficient severity and magnitude to warrant an emergency declaration for all states, tribes, territories, and the District of Columbia pursuant to Section 501(b) of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. § 5121-5207 (the “Stafford Act”); and

WHEREAS, many law enforcement training courses have had to be suspended or postponed because of the restrictions on mass gatherings to slow the spread of COVID-19; and current administrative rules would cause progress to be lost in these courses; and

WHEREAS, this loss of progress could jeopardize law enforcement officers’ certification and reduce the number of law enforcement officers available at a time of great need; and

WHEREAS, the undersigned has determined that the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission and the North Carolina Sheriffs’ Education and Training Standards Commission should have the flexibility to waive or modify the requirements that would cause progress to be lost; and

WHEREAS, the undersigned has sought and obtained concurrence from the Council of State consistent with the Governor’s emergency powers authority in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 166A-19.30.

NOW, THEREFORE, by the authority vested in me as Governor by the Constitution and the laws of the State of North Carolina, IT IS ORDERED:

Section 1. Extending Time to Complete Criminal Justice Training Courses

For the reasons and pursuant to the authority set forth above, the undersigned orders as follows:

Code 09B .0202(b)(2) that the Basic Law Enforcement Training (BLET) course be delivered “during consecutive calendar weeks, except that there may be as many as three (3) one-week breaks until course requirements are completed.” This authorization applies to any BLET course that was in progress or commenced during this State of Emergency.

B. Instructor Training courses. The North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission may, in its discretion, waive or modify the requirement under 12 N.C. Admin. Code 09B .0202(c)(1) that the Criminal Justice Instructor Training course be delivered “during consecutive calendar weeks until course requirements are completed.” This authorization applies to any course that was in progress or commenced during this State of Emergency.

Section 2. Savings Clause

If any provision of this Executive Order or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, this invalidity does not affect any other provision or application of this Executive Order, which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application. To achieve this purpose, the provisions of this Executive Order are declared to be severable.

Section 3. Distribution

I hereby order that this Executive Order be: (1) distributed to the news media and other organizations calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public; (2) promptly filed with the Secretary of the North Carolina Department of Public Safety, the Secretary of State, and the superior court clerks in the counties to which it applies, unless the circumstances of the State of Emergency would prevent or impede such filing; and (3) distributed to others as necessary to ensure proper implementation of this Executive Order.

This Executive Order is effective immediately. This Executive Order shall remain in effect for thirty (30) days from today’s date or unless repealed, replaced, or rescinded by another applicable Executive Order.
