

Elizabeth City State University - Gilchrist Building

34% Energy Reduction Compared to Baseline
$37,485 Energy Savings in 2014 Compared to Baseline

PROJECT DETAILS

LOCATION..... Elizabeth City, NC
CONSTRUCTION TYPE..... New Construction
BUILDING TYPE..... Classroom and Office Building
OWNER..... Elizabeth City State University
BUILDING AREA..... 48,112 Enclosed SF
BUILDING CODE OR STANDARD..... ASHRAE 90.1-2004

DESIGN TEAM

ARCHITECT..... Perkins and Will (formerly The Freelon Group)
ENGINEER..... Affiliated Engineers, Inc.
COMMISSIONING AGENT..... The Wooten Company

CONTACT

Architect: Kevin Turner, AIA, LEED AP, Perkins+Will, kevin.turner@perkinswill.com

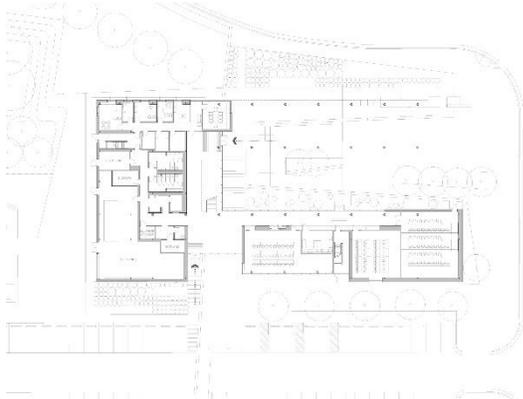

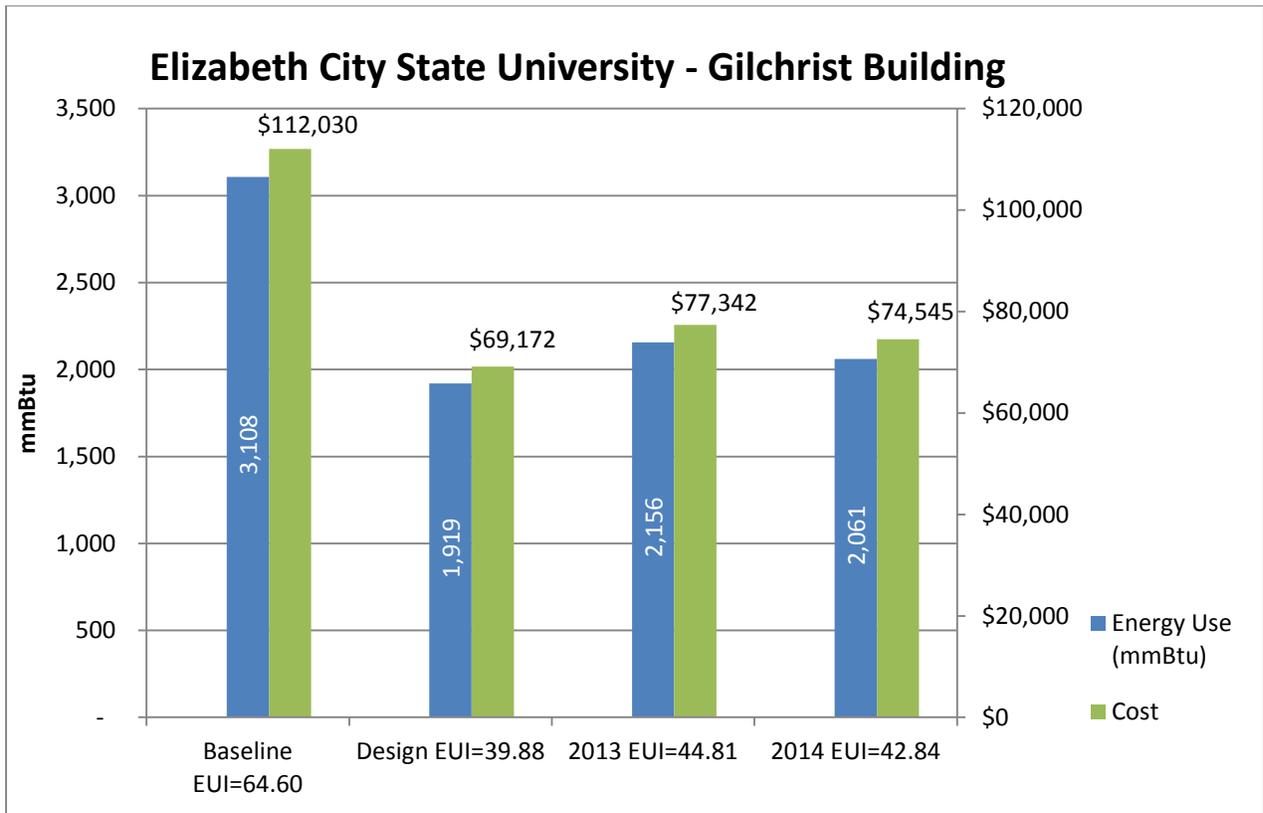

Photo credits: Mark Herboth

Project Description

The new School of Education and Psychology Building is a 3-story, 48,000 SF classroom and faculty office building at Elizabeth City State University. The project utilizes geo-thermal wells, an enthalpy wheel, high-performance glazing, and other advanced building systems.