NOTICE TO WORKERS WITH DISABILITIES PAID AT SPECIAL MINIMUM WAGES

The Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) provides that workers with disabilities whose disabilities impair their ability to perform the type of work being done in the establishment may be employed at wage rates below the minimum otherwise required by the FLSA. Such employment is permitted only under certificates issued by the Department of Labor and must reflect the productivity of the individual worker as related to the productivity of a worker who does not have disabilities for the work being performed, and the wages being paid to experienced workers performing the same or similar work in the vicinity. Such wages are referred to as "commensurate wage rates." This establishment has a certificate authorizing the payment of commensurate wages to workers with disabilities. Workers who do not have disabilities for the work being performed, including workers who may otherwise have disabilities, must receive at least the statutory minimum wage.

For purposes of payment of commensurate wages under a certificate, a worker with a disability is defined as an individual whose earning or productive capacity is impaired by a physical or mental disability, including those relating to age or injury, for the work to be performed. Disabilities which may, but will not necessarily, affect productive capacity include blindness, mental illness, mental retardation, cerebral palsy, alcoholism, and drug addiction. The following, taken by themselves, do not constitute disabilities for purposes of paying commensurate wages: educational disabilities, chronic unemployment, receipt of welfare benefits, nonattendance at school, juvenile delinquency, and correctional parole or probation.

Each worker with a disability, and where appropriate, the parent or guardian of such worker, shall be informed orally and in writing by the employer of the terms of the certificate under which such worker is employed.

Complaints or questions regarding the terms and conditions of employment under a certificate may be directed to the Wage and Hour Division, U.S. Department of Labor. Action will be taken to address an individual's concerns, including where appropriate, a formal investigation of the employer. Workers with disabilities paid at special minimum wages may also petition the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the U.S. Department of Labor for a review of their wage rates by an Administrative Law Judge. No particular form of petition is required, except that it must be signed by the worker with a disability or his or her parent or guardian and should contain the name and address of the employer. Petitions should be mailed to: Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, U.S. Department of Labor, Room S-3502, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20210.
