Adult Day Care Coordinator Basic Training

Description
This one-day training is designed to assist county DSS staff in developing monitoring skills and knowledge of Adult Day Care Policies and Procedures. Emphasis is given to the North Carolina Adult Day Care and Day Health Services Standards for Certification and the role of county DSS staff in assuring compliance with standards. Training will focus on key points of certification, monitoring and certification renewal. Training methods include lectures, skills practice, and large and small group discussions. In addition, the training familiarizes participants with sources of additional information and assistance through a comprehensive training/resource notebook that is given to each participant to use in his/her work.

Objectives
At the conclusion of this training, participants will be able to:

1. understand the role and responsibilities carried out by county departments of social services related to adult day care, particularly those of the Adult Day Care Coordinator;
2. understand the statutory requirements, state policies, and procedures for adult day care and adult day health;
3. understand current standards for adult day care and adult day health services and gain basic skills in the monitoring and enforcement of standards; and
4. understand policies and procedures for the initial certification and recertification of adult day care and day health programs.

Audience
The Adult Day Care Coordinator Basic Training is designed for social workers who have responsibility for monitoring adult day care and day health programs.

Description

The Adult Protective Services Basic Skills Training provides county DSS staff with a working knowledge of law, policy, and practice issues which will enhance their basic skills in receiving and evaluating reports and in planning services for abused, neglected or exploited disabled adults who are found to be in need of protective services. Training methods include lecture, group discussions, skills practice, and work with case studies. The training consists of two Modules. Module I will be offered as an independent session at all of the sites across the state, and as something new this year, we will be offering Modules I and II over five consecutive days at three of the sites.

Module I is two days in length and introduces participants to the field of Adult Protective Services and the requirements for receiving and screening reports.

Module II is three days in length and introduces participants to the knowledge and skills necessary for completing evaluations, making case decisions, obtaining authorization, and planning services to protect disabled adults.

Module I is a prerequisite for attending Module II, with one exception. Anyone who has previously attended the APS Basic Skills Training in its entirety may register for either Module I or Module II.

Objectives

At the conclusion of both modules of this training, participants will be able to:

1. understand and use the statutory requirements, state policies, and social work practice guidelines in APS;
2. understand the reason for consistent implementation of these statutory requirements and policies and guidelines from county to county;
3. improve service delivery to APS clients through the use of knowledge, skills, and values covered in this training;
4. demonstrate basic skills in APS report screening; assessment and evaluation; case decision-making; assessment of capacity to consent; service authorization, planning and provision; special issues related to APS in facilities; and case documentation;
5. understand the philosophical framework which emphasizes social work values critical to APS practice; and
6. be able to operate with confidence in a complex program area.

Audience

Social workers who have responsibility for evaluating and planning services for Adult Protective Services cases and line supervisors who have management responsibility for this program area. Social workers who provide back-up or after-hours coverage for Adult Protective Services, or have responsibility for adult services intake will also find this training beneficial.

Description

This new one-day workshop entitled “Assessing An Adult’s Capacity To Consent” was developed by the Division of Social Services and successfully piloted in two locations last year. The workshop provides participants an excellent opportunity to learn about and discuss mental capacity as it relates to Adult Protective Services. Mental capacity is defined and the differences and similarities between mental capacity and mental competence are discussed. Lecture and small group discussion is used to break mental capacity down into its very basic degrees and components, to help participants better understand the concept of mental capacity. Principles for determining whether an adult has or lacks capacity to consent to protective services are explored, including using APS evaluation data to assist with making a decision about capacity to consent. Participants learn the importance of obtaining help, when necessary, in making a capacity decision, and the importance of accurately and thoroughly documenting how the decision was reached.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this training, participants will:

1. Be able to identify indicators of capacity.
2. Be familiar with tools used to assist in assessing capacity.
3. Be familiar with mental disorders and acute illness and how these impact capacity.
4. Be empowered to make the capacity decision.
5. Understand that a social worker’s judgement and skills are a valuable resource in determining an adult’s capacity.
6. Be able to access the area mental health program’s assistance with gathering information to make a capacity decision.

Audience

Social workers and supervisors with responsibility for evaluating and planning service interventions in APS cases. The workshop is being offered as an advanced level training (beyond the Basic Skills Training) for APS staff. Completion of both Modules I and II of the Adult Protective Services Basic Skills Training is a prerequisite for attending this workshop.

Adult Protective Services: Dynamics of Mistreatment Among Elderly and Disabled Adults

Description

This one-day workshop is designed for Adult Protective Services staff. The curriculum introduces participants to the mental and emotional aspects of violent and abusive relationships. Participants will learn to recognize and begin to deal with the contributing factors and psychological dynamics of mistreatment. This workshop uses domestic violence theories as its basis, but applies these theories to the types of relationships seen in APS cases.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this training, participants will:

1. Have knowledge of basic domestic violence theories and how they relate to APS situations.
2. Be able to identify and assess situations where family abuse dynamics are present.
3. Be able to integrate the knowledge of domestic violence theories and solutions of domestic violence cases to APS cases.

Audience

Social workers who have responsibility for evaluating and planning services for Adult Protective Services cases and their supervisors. The workshop is being offered as an advanced level training (beyond the Basic Skills Training) for APS staff. Completion of both Modules I and II of the Adult Protective Services Basic Skills Training is a prerequisite for attending this workshop.

Adult Protective Services: Protecting Facility Residents and Patients

Description
This training is new and will be conducted 3 times in the Spring of 2003. It is an advanced and specialized training covering the topic of APS evaluations and service planning in facilities. Participants will have already attended the Basic Skills training. This training session will offer more in-depth knowledge and skills pertaining to APS in facility settings.

Objectives
At the conclusion of this training, participants will:

1. Understand the role of APS in a facility and how APS collaborates with other agencies and disciplines to protect disabled adults.
2. Be knowledgeable of the variety of records kept by facilities that pertain to patient or resident care.
3. Gain skills and knowledge in selecting persons to interview and other resources to use in a facility based APS evaluation.
4. Learn about different approaches to protective plans when the disabled adult is a resident or patient of a facility.

Audience
Social workers and supervisors with responsibility for evaluating and planning service interventions in APS cases involving facility settings. The workshop is being offered as an advanced level training (beyond the Basic Skills Training) for APS staff. Completion of both Modules I and II of the Adult Protective Services Basic Skills Training is a prerequisite for attending this workshop.

An Introduction to Aging: Knowledge and Skills for Working with Older Adults and Their Families

Description

This is a two-day foundation course in aging for health and human services professionals from diverse settings. It is designed to provide basic information and skills needed to work effectively with older adults and their families. The training is divided into four modules: Aging Processes, Group and Individual Differences, Changes and Losses, and Practice Challenges. Training methods include lecturettes, large and small group discussions, skills practice, work with case studies, and opportunities for discussion among participants about topics such as practice challenges, ethics and values, and end-of-life issues.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this training, participants will be able to:

1. distinguish differences between normal aging and pathology;
2. understand the common threads of aging while appreciating the diversity of older people;
3. describe life course transitions and their impact on older people and their families;
4. understand the challenges older adults and their families face; and
5. respect and advocate for the older person's autonomy, dignity, and right to make choices.

Audience

Health and human services professionals who want a basic knowledge of aging as it relates to working with older adults and their families.

Description

At-Risk Case Management is a Medicaid funded service that assists adults and children at-risk of abuse, neglect, or exploitation in gaining access to needed services. The program was created in October 1992 as a way of assisting county departments of social services provide required services to adults and children in the face of shrinking SSBG funds. In May 1996, a new criterion for the service was added, allowing the service to be provided to adults and children who are being abused, neglected or exploited and the need for protective services is substantiated.

This one-day training is intended to provide a detailed review of the service, including agency certification requirements, staffing requirements, client criteria for the service, policies governing the provision of the service, and documentation. Some attention is given to fiscal reporting as well.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this training, participants will be able to:

1. Understand the criteria for eligibility for At-Risk Case Management Services
2. Correctly identify clients who are eligible for the service
3. Identify the required case management steps
4. Document service provision in accordance with policy requirements

Audience

Adult and Children services social workers who provide direct services and their supervisors. Previous completion of Effective Social Work Practice in Adult Services: A Core Curriculum is helpful, but not required, for participation in this training.

Effective Social Work Practice in Adult Services: A Core Curriculum

Description

This six-day training, offered in two 3-day sessions, is designed to assist DSS adult services social workers in understanding and integrating the concepts of A Model for Excellence in Adult Services Administration and Social Work Practice into their practice. This includes an emphasis on family-centered practice, empowerment of adults and their families, and the importance of cultural differences in work with adults and their families. Participants learn and practice basic skills in counseling, functional assessment, helping adults and their families set goals, emergency and crisis intervention, and service planning and monitoring. Participants also have the opportunity to use a set of tools for case recordkeeping to support and document their practice. Teaching methods include brief presentations, videotapes, role-plays, large and small group discussion, and extensive skills practice.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this training, participants will be able to:

1. explain the major concepts of A Model for Excellence;
2. explain and demonstrate the steps in the Family Assessment and Change Process;
3. describe how awareness of and sensitivity to cultural differences affect social workers' relationships with adults and their families;
4. enhance relationships with human services providers in the community; and
5. demonstrate the use of recordkeeping tools for each step of the Family Assessment and Change Process.

Audience

Adult Services social workers and supervisors.

Effective Supervision and Management in Adult Services

Description

This is a six-module curriculum designed to enhance knowledge and skills essential for the administrative, supportive, and educational functions of an effective adult services manager. Each two-day module provides participants with the opportunity to examine current professional concepts, practice their application, and share ideas and experiences among peers. Training methods include lecturettes, assessment tools, videos, case studies, skills practice, and large and small group discussions. Participants are given reference materials and tools to apply in their work.

Module I: "The Supervisor's Role in Supporting Excellent Adult Services Social Work Practice" focuses on developing and demonstrating effective leadership in adult services to support excellent family-centered social work practice in county DSSs. Participants will assess critical success factors, leadership characteristics, and communication styles that support their mission. Participants will perform a self-analysis to address their own strengths and limitations in these areas. Not offered in FY 2002-2003.

Module II: "The Supervisor's Role in Strategic Planning" focuses on the important role of planning and goal setting for adult services programs. Participants will identify how effective plans and goals aid in establishing a mission, budgeting appropriately, and responding to an ever-changing environment.

Module III: "The Supervisor's Role in Developing a Supportive Community Environment" focuses on identifying and practicing effective ways to develop and strengthen support for adult services within the DSS and the community. Project and resource management as well as customer service are examined as ways to increase productivity and collaboration.

Module IV: "The Supervisor's Role in Directing Daily Social Work Activities" focuses on developing a positive approach to supervision which includes coaching, performance management, effective leadership styles, and situational leadership. Additionally, this workshop addresses cultural sensitivity and managing conflict.

Module V: "The Supervisor's Role in Teaching and Motivation" focuses on supporting the recruitment and retention of staff, professional development and continuous self-improvement, creating an adult learning environment, motivating staff, and building teamwork. Not offered in FY 2002-2003.

Module VI: "The Supervisor's Role in Managing Program Performance" focuses on developing performance outcomes, linking program and client outcomes, and tracking, measuring, and reporting the results.

Objectives

At the conclusion of all modules of this training, participants will be able to:

1. articulate a vision of an optimally functioning adult services practice environment;
2. use strategic planning and goal setting skills to strengthen adult services programs;
3. improve resource development capabilities by developing a supportive environment;
4. use effective techniques to direct daily social work activities and manage a productive staff in a supportive environment;
5. use skills to create a learning and motivational environment; and
6. improve program evaluation and establish a self-evaluative environment.

Geriatric Mental Health Workshop

Description

This four-day training, offered in two 2-day sessions, is designed to enhance knowledge and skills for effective work with older adults with mental disorders and with their families. The curriculum provides an introduction to normal aging and an overview of mental disorders in older adults. It introduces specialized assessment techniques and presents biopsychosocial treatment approaches including modules on psychotropic medications, behavioral approaches to dementia, and counseling older adults and their families. Information on legal issues and ways to plan for potential problems is provided. Participants are introduced to community resources for older adults with mental disorders and their families. Training methods include presentations by experts in the content areas, discussion, videotapes, and skills practice. In addition, the training familiarizes participants with sources of additional information and assistance through a comprehensive resource notebook.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this training, participants will be able to:

1. recognize symptoms of mental disorders in older adults;
2. conduct mental health assessments with older people;
3. understand the importance of addressing medical, drug, and alcohol issues that cause or exacerbate mental illness;
4. incorporate reminiscing and cognitive-behavioral approaches into their counseling with older adults and their families;
5. describe how to implement behavioral interventions for older adults with dementia and access resources for them and their families; and
6. identify legal issues that may confront older adults with mental disorders and their families, and potential remedies for these problems.

Audience

Social workers, nurses, psychologists, allied health professionals, and others who work with older adults with mental disorders.

Description

The focus of this training is consistent with the statutory requirement that all disinterested public agent guardians receive training on their roles and responsibilities as guardians. Information on guardianship law, Department of Health and Human Services policy, and practice issues related to guardianship is included. Training methods include lecturettes, small and large group discussion, presentations by experts in content areas, skills practice, and a case study.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this training, participants will be able to:

1. recognize the fundamental purpose of guardianship;
2. discuss the statutory requirements set out in North Carolina General Statute 35A and state policies and procedures set out in North Carolina Administrative Code which address the roles and responsibilities of the disinterested public agent guardian;
3. describe the jurisdiction of the Clerk of Superior Court and venue for the hearing on the adjudication of incompetence and the appointment of a guardian;
4. identify the procedures for petitioning the court for the adjudication of incompetence and the appointment of a guardian;
5. explain the types of guardianships and the priority of appointment of a guardian;
6. recognize the core activities in the Family Assessment and Change Process that provide a method of engagement and planning with the ward/the ward's family/caregivers; and
7. list the ethical principles and guidelines for decision-making on behalf of the ward.

Audience

Directors or assistant directors of county departments of social services, area mental health authorities, and local health departments who serve as disinterested public agent guardians. Social workers who provide case management responsibilities for guardianship will also find this training beneficial.

Description

The purpose of this training is to provide a framework for organizing work with wards and their families to create positive change and enhance decision-making. This framework includes the following core activities that are central to work with wards and their families: conducting a comprehensive functional assessment, identifying areas for change, establishing goals, planning for interventions and services, implementing services, monitoring, reassessment and case closing. Training methods include lectures, small and large group discussion, skills practice exercises, audiovisuals, and case studies.

Objectives

At the conclusion of the training, participants will be able to:

1. describe a logical way for thinking and organizing work with wards, their families and caregivers to create positive outcomes and enhance the guardian’s decision-making,
2. discuss the importance of setting goals with wards, their families and caregivers that are specific, measurable, attainable, realistic and time-limited;
3. demonstrate how individualized service/treatment plans can be developed from goals;
4. discuss the importance of assuring that wards receive appropriate and continuous care through coordination of both formal and informal resources; and
5. understand the necessity to work toward limiting or terminating the guardianship.

Audience

This training is appropriate for social workers, case managers, public health nurses, and supervisors who provide the day to day responsibility for guardianship services. The workshop is being offered as an advanced level training (beyond the basic training) for staff with guardianship responsibility.

Completion of Guardianship: A Systematic Approach is a prerequisite for attending this workshop.

Improving the Management and Supervision of In-Home Aide Services

Description

This six-day workshop, offered in three 2-day modules, is designed to enhance knowledge and skills needed to carry out responsibilities for In-Home Aide Services program management and direct aide supervision. Key concepts that are addressed throughout the training include retention of aides and quality assurance. Training methods include discussion, skills practice exercises, and presentations by experts in the field, including local providers from a variety of settings.

Module I: Covers supervision and management issues from the beginning of recruitment until the aide is allowed to work independently with clients. The sessions focus heavily on recruitment, interviewing/selection, orientation, and competency testing of aides.

Module II: Covers ongoing supervision and management issues from the time the aide begins to work independently until she leaves employment as an aide. The sessions address scheduling, in-service training of aides and aide supervisory skills, including improving work habits, problem-solving and performance evaluation.

Module III: Covers broad agency and management issues related to directly providing or contracting for In-Home Aide Services. The sessions address service planning and fiscal management, contracting, record keeping and documentation requirements, and recognizing and rewarding staff.

Objectives

At the conclusion of all modules of this training, participants will be able to:
1. know and use successful techniques for recruiting, interviewing, and selecting in-home aides;
2. identify methods and tools for orienting, training and competency testing aides;
3. utilize techniques for assisting an in-home aide to improve work habits;
4. determine own strengths and weaknesses based on individual supervisory style;
5. know and use a range of training techniques for ongoing aide training
6. determine the agency's actual unit cost of providing In-Home Aide Services and understand the cost implications of turnover;
7. describe supervisory techniques and agency approaches that can reduce turnover of in-home aides;
8. describe the pros and cons of contracting for In-Home Aide Services and techniques for improving contracting relationships; and
9. understand the importance of agency and community planning for In-Home Aide Services.

Audience

Staff directly responsible for In-Home Aide Services program management and aide supervision; other staff who have a role in the aide service program, such as: social workers, nurses, case managers, service coordinators, and aide schedulers. Participation will be open to participants from public and private agencies, including local aging, health, and social services programs, and home care agencies. Participants will have an opportunity for sharing knowledge and skills with their peers from a variety of local agency settings.

Working with Clients with Serious Mental Illness: The DSS Perspective

Description

This two-day training is designed to enhance social workers' knowledge and skills in providing services to adults with serious mental illness. The curriculum familiarizes participants with symptoms and functional problems associated with severe and persistent mental illness; acquaints them with medications and side-effects; helps them understand the emotional impact of these illnesses on adults and their families; empowers them to access mental health services for adults; and helps them prevent or better manage difficult behaviors. The training addresses serious mental illness in general as well as the following specific disorders: Schizophrenia, Major Depressive Disorder, and Bipolar Disorders. Training methods include lecture, discussion, presentations by consumers of mental health services and family members, videotapes, and skills practice with case examples.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this training, participants will be able to:

1. define and describe the major types, signs, symptoms, and phases of severe and persistent mental illness and discuss what is known about causation;
2. list the major categories of psychotropic medications, their common use, and the risks and benefits of medication usage;
3. express increased empathy for the difficulties mental illness causes adults and their families;
4. describe effective ways to access mental health services for adults; and
5. identify effective methods of preventing and managing difficult behaviors.

Audience

Adult services social workers and supervisors; mental health professionals. The involvement of professionals from both service systems helps promote cross-training and enhances collaboration.
