ETHICS STATEMENT: Mr. Richardson read the Ethics Statement on behalf of Chairman Lambert. He charged Commission Members to declare any conflict of interest, or appearance of conflict of interest that may exist in relation to any business before the Commission, as mandated by the State Ethics Act. No conflicts were noted.

APPROVAL OF MARCH 7TH MEETING MINUTES: The minutes of the Commission meeting held on March 7, 2019, were presented. Commissioner Wanda Burns-Ramsey made a motion to approve the minutes. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Constance Mitchell. Motion carried.

BRIEFING ON OCCANEECHI BAND OF THE SAPONI NATION OPERATIONS: Commissioner Tony Hayes, Chairman, Occaneechi Band of the Saponi Nation presented a brief overview of tribal activities.

The presentation is attached and is an official part of the minutes. (Attachment A)

GREETINGS: Dr. Randy Williams, Associate Vice President for Campus Engagement, Assistant Professor of Education, Elon University welcomed the Commission to Elon University. He noted that Elon University was happy to collaborate and partner with the Commission of Indian Affairs with the efforts of Commissioner Tony Hayes, Occaneechi Band of the Saponi Nation Indian Tribe. Dr. Williams shared information about the CREDE Program at Elon University. The acronym stands for Center for Race, Ethnicity & Diversity Education’s (CREDE) and is the signature program for social justice. The goal of the program is to achieve greater understanding of identities, power, and their relation to systemic inequities. The university has advocacies supporting diversity both within the community and outside through key training and workshops.

MUSEUM OF ART AT DUKE UNIVERSITY: Dr. Marshall N. Price, Curator of Modern and Contemporary Art, Duke University presented a PowerPoint presentation on the “Art for a New Understanding Native Voices, 1950s to Now”. Consists of 40 artists from US and Canada (East Coast all the way to Alaska) on Contemporary Native American Art. The following is the link to most of the public programs that are part of the exhibition: https://nasher.duke.edu/postcards/announcements/2019/voices/

Dr. Marshall invited Commission members to visit the National Museum website for more information.

The PowerPoint presentation is attached and is an official part of the minutes. (Attachment B)

COMMENTS FROM COMMISSION MEMBERS:

- Commission members asked if there were any artists from North Carolina involved in the program at Duke. Dr. Price noted that there were several Cherokee Indian artists from North Carolina involved.
- Questions were asked if the state recognized tribes were included in Duke’s Contemporary Native American Art. Dr. Price indicated that since it was an exhibition organized by another institute the exhibition is already established. He expressed that Duke University is looking into having programs that will include NC Native Indian Artists.
Commission members thanked Dr. Marshall for his presentation and expressed that the American Indian Community in North Carolina has tremendous talent who produce quality Arts and Crafts and would be happy to participate in the art exhibitions, if invited.

VOLUNTEER NC: Ms. Caroline Farmer, Executive Director, Volunteer Community Service NC, Office of the Governor, Raleigh, NC discussed the following:
- Governor’s Volunteer opportunities such as Governor’s Page program; AmeriCorps, Community Emergency Response Team (CERT); NC Disaster Assistance Relief Fund; Governor’s Volunteer Award.
- AmeriCorps: This volunteer program addresses critical needs in communities in the United States. They award grants for specific causes. Ms. Farmer indicated they provide AmeriCorps grants to Universities, Schools, Government entities, Non-Profit Organizations to work on a specific community problem.
- Ms. Farmer provided a list of programs and gave a brief description on each.
- She indicated that her program can help with the research or connect people doing similar programs.
- National Certification Corporation (NCC) – Program that trains volunteers come from other states to help with projects during national disasters. They provide disaster relief.
  - Matching Program: Requires a 24% match (Admin capability)
- NC Disaster Assistance Volunteer: Donations and Volunteerism
  - Donations – Guidance on where to donate, contact Ms. Farmer’s office
  - Request for needs in the community, it was stated that this needs to be researched before a disaster.

COMMENTS FROM COMMISSION MEMBERS:

A summary of the presentation is attached and is an official part of the minutes. (Attachment D)
The handouts provided are on file with the Commission.

Mr. Mark Teague, Attorney, NC Department of Justice, presented the following:

- Regulation Process following Commission’s review of Final Recommendation
- Procedures for Recognition 01 NCAC 15.0209 items 10, 11, 12 and 13 were reiterated.
- Petitioner can request a hearing between this meeting, the June or September 2019 meeting.
- Petitioner must address the deficiencies and findings at the hearing. Commission members requested that the petitioner identify the deficiency or finding that they reference during the hearing for clarity.
- Commission can accept the recommendation of the Recognition Committee or the Commission can reject the petition. The petitioner can challenge the decision of the Commission.
- If Commission members have questions, they need to be submitted to the recognition staff, who will then share that information with the recognition committee for further discussion.
- Mr. Teague requested members to read all the handouts before the next Commission meeting. This will enable them to make an informed decision regarding the petition.
- It was noted that the handouts provided are confidential due to personal information and should not be distributed to the public, as they are unredacted.
- If a public request is made, recognition staff need to redact the material before being released to the public.
- The handout (rules and regulation process) provided is on file with the Commission.

Summary: It was noted that the Recognition Committee, has determined according to the recognition rules that the TNNC has not met the requirements to be recognized as an Indian tribe in North Carolina. The recognition rules also require that the TNNC be granted a hearing before the full Commission if they so desire. The TNNC has requested a hearing before the full Commission regarding this matter. The Commission will proceed to schedule the hearing.

Update on other matters pending before the Recognition Committee:

- The following groups that have submitted letters of Intent to Petition for State Recognition and are currently receiving Technical Assistance: Roanoke-Hatteras Indian Tribe; Cherokee Indians of Hoke and Surrounding Counties. These groups are currently receiving technical assistance.
- Other groups – Documentation is on file. The groups may pursue recognition later.

The handouts provided are on file with the Commission.

COMMENTS FROM COMMISSION MEMBERS:

- Commissioner Jeff Anstead made a motion to acknowledge the receipt of the Recognition report and recommendation. Mr. Mark Teague, Attorney informed Chairman Lambert that the motion is in order. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Charles Richardson. Motion carried.
- Chairman Lambert requested Commissioner Jeff Anstead to repeat his complete motion. Commissioner Jeff Anstead made a motion to acknowledge the receipt of the report and recommendation from the Recognition Committee. Commissioner Charles Richardson confirmed that he has seconded the motion. Motion carried unanimously.
Short break, meeting reconvened at 12:59 p.m.

WELCOMING REMARKS: Dr. Randy Williams, Associate Vice President, introduced Dr. Connie Ledoux Book, President, Elon University, to the Commission. He informed the Commission that Dr. Book was appointed as President in March 2018. She has sixteen years of Elon experience. Dr. Williams highlighted her accomplishments as follows: She was instrumental in the ten-year Elon Strategic Planning; Established the Student Development Center; Created the Residential Campus Plan; and Growth of Civic Engagement Programs. She has launched a historic fundraising campaign for Elon University.

Dr. Connie Ledoux Book, President welcomed everyone to Elon University. On behalf of the Elon Community she expressed that the University was happy to host the Commission meeting. She shared the history of Elon; in Hebrew it means Oak. The oak trees are the strength of the community. She explained the flag and its symbol, (the oak leaf on one side and the fire on the other half). The 1923 fire destroyed most of the campus. The mascot “Phoenix” is rising out of the fire. A remarkable story that was explained in brief as to how the campus was rebuilt over several years. Every student that arrives is given an acorn and upon their graduation is offered a seedling. The students plant the seedling that represents their education and deliver the quality the rest of their life.

Dr. Book expressed that education is an everyday miracle to learn something new and advance their lives and their family’s lives. To enrich their future from that knowledge they received at Elon. She noted that the education of the students is much like “the acorn to sapling”. She expressed that the history of Elon needs to be researched, understood and preserved. She discussed in brief the four values of the university.

She presented an overview of the University:

- Elon University: Elon has more than 7,000 students enrolled each year and at the core of this experience is understanding in arts and sciences. After under graduation, students branch out to do their master’s in communication, business, health education, etc. Students have an opportunity to learn and be educated, to work in teams, to learn good communication skills, and take on the world’s challenges.
- Curriculum: Students at Elon, articulate these values and experiences in five ways: (1) Study Abroad; (2) Study USA. (3) Service Learning; (4) Internships (5) Undergraduate research (also known as Service Year). Service year, students earn a full-time modest salary with benefits.
- Elon Academy Program: Students come in the summer for a three-year summer program beginning in the 9th grade. This program has a 100% acceptance into college track record. These students get scholarship to attend college. The last class that graduated received a $7M in financial aid from the universities that they are attending. The goal of this curriculum is for students to attend a college of their choice and be successful. Dr. Book noted that Elon University is proud of the interception between Elon University and the Elon School System to help educate students and prepare them for college.
- Success Story: A book written about Elon Success Story called “Transforming a College”. It is now in its ninth edition. It is used by Universities across the country to understand the power of planning.
- Future Goals: She informed that the university is having a conversation on advance planning of the next decade of “Higher Education 2025”.

NC Commission of Indian Affairs
Quarterly Commission Meeting
Dated: June 7, 2019
Dr. Book noted that these moments today at the meeting is similar to that of advance planning. Where a group of leaders get together and share their understandings, make decisions and advance a plan as a Commission. She was grateful to have the Commission here at Elon.

COMMENTS FROM COMMISSION MEMBERS:
- Mr. Greg Richardson thanked Dr. Book and staff for their hospitality.
- Dr. Book thanked Mr. Richardson for his compliments and noted that she is very proud of Elon University.

Lunch break, Chairman Lambert requested Commissioner Helen Cook to bless the food. The meeting reconvened at 2:05 p.m.

The Executive Director’s Report is included in the meeting packet for reference. Mr. Richardson urged members to share information contained in the report during tribal and other meetings in the community.

The Executive Director’s Report is attached and is an official part of the minutes. (Attachment E)

COMMENTS FROM COMMISSION MEMBERS:
- Commission members requested information on Real ID.

FOLLOWING ITEM IS NOT LISTED ON THE AGENDA
Mr. Sterling Johnson, Griffin & Strong, PC, Atlanta, gave a brief overview on the following:
- Discussed the partnership with North Carolina Department of Transportation (NC DOT) regarding the 2019 NC DOT Minority Owned Business Disparity Study.
- Discussed disparity study is conducted to help the minority owned business population in the state of North Carolina.
- Discussed in brief the statistical analysis on the minority owned businesses broken down into ethnicity and gender.
- Informed that the company is partnering with the North Carolina Commission of Indian Affairs and is in contact with Commissioner Tony Hayes and Mr. Greg Richardson on minority population which includes American Indians.
- Noted that the company is holding special Public Hearings in the American Indian community during the month of June 2019, across the state of North Carolina. This is in addition to the five scheduled Public Hearings.
- The special Public Hearings (Disparity Study Community Forum) will be held at different times and at different locations within the American Indian community. It was noted that the four meetings will be held during the month of June 11-12, 2019. Details are listed in the flyer.
- It was noted that the series of these public meetings will help gather feedback on community experiences seeking contracts with NCDOT and determine what barriers, if any, exist to American Indian business growth.

The flyer on the location of the public hearings was distributed and is on file with the Commission.

COMMENTS FROM COMMISSION MEMBERS:
  - It was noted that these series of public meetings were important for American Indian businesses and Commission members need to advocate for the Disparity Study Community Forum in their local communities. This process will enable a good turnout at these meetings.

COMMITTEE REPORTS: Action Items Only
Adhoc Indian Health Committee: No report was noted. Commissioner Charles Richardson, Committee Chair, requested Ms. Christina Theodora to make a presentation on health care.

Ms. Christina Theodora, Maximus, NC Enrollment Broker for Medicaid and Medicare. She noted that she has already had consultations with tribal leaders.

Discussed the following:
- How Medicaid will affect tribal communities.
- Medicaid will transition into Managed Care; it will be called Medicaid Direct. Launch date June 28, 2019.
- Plans will be administered through Health Insurance Companies. All services received will be through Managed Health Care Plans. Discussed in brief the three categories: Mandatory, Exempt, Excluded.
- It was noted that Medicaid will be different especially for the tribes. For federally recognized tribes there will be a tribal option to select. Tribal option will start on February 2020. She noted that the prepaid health plans will change and have incentives. There could be additional incentives such as gym memberships, copays that go along with Medicaid, etc.
- It was noted that due to persistence of the Commission of Indian Affairs and tribal organizations that her position (Tribal Liaison) was created by the State of North Carolina to help the tribal communities. She thanked the leadership of the Commission of Indian Affairs and Tribal Organizations. This is the only time that a liaison is hired prior to the launch of the proposal to the state.
- Discussed the list of health care providers. There will be face-to-face meetings in tribal and rural areas regarding the enrollment procedures. She provided a list of open enrollment dates (2019 Phase I and 2020 Phase II).
• In conclusion, she noted that Maximus will provide quality choice counseling, enrollment assistance and education to beneficiaries as they select from a variety of health plans. As part of the enrollment broker function, Maximus will help members select the health plan and primary care provider. Maximus staff will be available to help members enroll over the phone via a call center, online through an interactive and user-friendly website and walk-in at some locations. The completed forms can be faxed or emailed. Maximus will provide dedicated liaisons who will work closely with caseworkers (social services) and other county staff to provide managed care training and conduct outreach services.

No handout was provided.
