

THE HUBSTER

NORTH CAROLINA OFFICE FOR HISTORICALLY UNDERUTILIZED BUSINESSES

November 2019 Edition

Secretary Michael Regan of the Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) shared with the HUB Advisory Council the significance of Executive Order NO. 80 and the opportunities for HUB vendors in a clean energy economy.

HUB Advisory Council—October Recap

The HUB Advisory Council met on October 30, 2019 in Raleigh. The Council heard about HUB Coordinator efforts at North Carolina State University, project outcomes from NCDOT Office of Civil Rights, an overview of new directives from DEQ, and final HUB year end reporting data. The Construction and Goods & Services sub-committees also presented updates and discussed current goals. The next HUB Advisory Council meeting will take place in January 2020. Find out more about the Council, appointees, and read the minutes here.

HUB Training Highlight

The HUB office partnered with the NCDOT Office of Civil Rights and the City of Salisbury, NC to host a certification training for over 40 minority and women business owners on October 25, 2019 at Rowan-Cabarrus Community College. The City and College were both presented with the MEDWeek proclamation in support of their commitment to HUB and supplier diversity in their local community. Since the training, 3 vendors in Rowan County have been HUB Certified and dozens are registered and completing the process. Read more about the event here.

HUB Spotlight—HH Architecture

Kristen M. Hess is the president / CEO of HH Architecture, a HUB certified and women-owned business in Raleigh, NC. For 15 years, Kristen and her firm have designed landmark projects that promote discovery, wellness, recreation and civic service; projects include: the NC Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services Agricultural Sciences Center, the Polar Bear exhibit expansion at the NC Zoo, and the City of Raleigh Five Points Center for Active Adults.

Kristen M. Hess

She also serves on the HUB Advisory Council and was the 2018 recipient of the HUB Award of Excellence. Kristen believes that "Inclusive teams are more productive teams. I am excited to partner with other HUB businesses to tackle challenging design, engineering and construction projects. As we work with public money to build for our community, we should also have voices at the table who reflect the communities we serve."

MWBE Awards
