Electronic Monitoring of Offenders – 915C

The Division of Purchase & Contract has established a new Statewide Term Contract in conjunction with NASPO ValuePoint (contract # 00212) to provide electronic monitoring of offenders. This is a convenience contract that may be used by state departments, agencies, and higher education institutions, as well as non-mandatory state agencies and other eligible entities. Additional contract information may be found on the NASPO ValuePoint website.

New Contract Highlights

This contract is intended to provide agencies with all their needs for electronic monitoring of offenders through Radio Frequency Monitoring and One-Piece GPS Satellite Tracking.

The Radio Frequency (RF) Monitoring service is used for home detention. The offender wears a vendor-provided, body-attached ankle bracelet transmitter that communicates by radio frequency with a home receiver. The home receiver transmits data to the vendor's monitoring center by landline telephone or by cellular communication. The monitoring center reports curfew violations and equipment status alerts to the designated agency officer or program manager by email, text message, or manual voice message pursuant to established protocols.

GPS satellite tracking is an electronic monitoring program provided through a body-attached, one-piece device or a multi-device system. In active tracking mode, a one-piece device uses GPS to track the offender once per minute and communicates this data to the vendor's monitoring center every 15 minutes through a cellular communication network. The monitoring center reports on violations and equipment status alerts are sent to the agency's designated officer or program manager by email, text message, or manual voice message pursuant to established protocols.

The vendor has a dedicated account representative to ensure agencies receive the utmost level of customer service and to provide a quote for required products and services.
