

2019 Income Tax Withholding Tables and Instructions for Employers

New for 2019

- Session Law 2017-57 included a provision to lower the income tax imposed on individuals from 5.499% to 5.25%. This legislation also increased the amount of the North Carolina standard deduction available to taxpayers based on their individual filing status. These changes resulted in revisions to the Formula Tables for Percentage Method Withholding Computations and Annualized Method Withholding Computations in Section 28, as well as the Wage Bracket Tables in Section 29. Forms NC-4, NC-4 NRA, and NC-4P were also revised to account for changes to the individual income tax rate and standard deduction amounts.
- Session Law 2018-5 amended the definition of “wages” under G.S. 105-163.1(13) for North Carolina income tax withholding purposes. Effective June 12, 2018, “wages” has the same meaning as defined under Internal Revenue Code section 3401. Before this change, reimbursements made by an employer to an employee for ordinary and necessary expenses incurred by the employee on behalf of the employer and in the furtherance of the business of the employer were excluded from the definition of wages and therefore not subject to North Carolina income tax withholding. With the change, such reimbursements are included in the definition of wages and are subject to North Carolina income tax withholding.
- Session Law 2018-5 rewrote the federal corrections provisions applicable to North Carolina income tax withholding returns under G.S. 105-163.6A. Under the new provisions, when a taxpayer voluntarily files an amended federal return with the Internal Revenue Service that contains adjustments that increase the amount of the taxpayer’s North Carolina tax liability, the taxpayer must file a State amended return with the Department within six months of filing the federal amended return. If an adjustment decreases the amount of a taxpayer’s North Carolina income tax liability, the taxpayer may file a State amended return within the statute of limitations for refunds. The changes are effective June 12, 2018, and apply to federal amended returns filed on or after that date. For additional details, see Section 21.
- Session Law 2018-5 amended G.S. 105-163.7 to change the due date for filing Form NC-3 when an employer goes out of business or stops paying wages. Effective June 12, 2018, if an employer terminates its business or stops paying wages during the taxable year, the employer must file Form NC-3 within thirty days of the last payment of remuneration.
- Session Law 2018-5 amended G.S. 105-236(a)(10) to subject a taxpayer to a penalty of $50 per day, up to a maximum of $1,000, for failure to file certain informational returns with the Secretary by the date the informational returns are due. In addition, the General Assembly created a new $200 penalty for failure to file informational returns in the format prescribed by the Secretary. These penalties are applicable to Form NC-3 required to be filed with the Department on or after June 12, 2018. A taxpayer may request a waiver of an informational return penalty by submitting Form NC-5501, Request for Waiver of an Informational Return Penalty. For additional details, see Section 25.
- Session Law 2018-5 amended G.S. 105-251.2(d) and G.S. 105-236(a)(10), the result of which is that “payment settlement entity” is subject to the informational return penalties provided in G.S. 105-236(a)(10) including the penalty for failure to file in a format prescribed by the Secretary. Previously, under G.S. 105-251.2(d), a “payment settlement entity” that failed to timely file the 1099K information return with the Department was subject to a penalty of $1,000. This change is effective for 1099K information returns required to be filed with the Department on or after June 12, 2018.

Calendar of Employer's Duties

At The Time a New Employee is Hired	Obtain a North Carolina Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, Form NC-4, Form NC-4 EZ, or NC-4 NRA , from each new employee when hired. On each payment of wages to an employee, withhold North Carolina income tax in accordance with the employee's withholding allowance certificate and the applicable withholding tax table.
On or Before January 31 and At The End of Employment	Give each employee who received wages a Wage and Tax Statement, Form W-2 . Also, give each nonresident who received non-wage compensation for personal services performed in North Carolina a Form NC-1099PS , Personal Services Income Paid to a Nonresident, and each ITIN Contractor a Form NC-1099-ITIN , Compensation Paid to an ITIN Contractor, or Federal Form 1099-MISC , Miscellaneous Income. Give each recipient of retirement distributions a completed Federal Form 1099-R , Distributions From Pensions, Annuities, Retirement or Profit-Sharing Plans, IRAs, Insurance Contracts, etc. Give each foreign person who receives U.S. source income that is subject to federal income tax withholdings a completed Form 1042-S , Foreign Person's U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding, if the income reported on Form 1042-S is North Carolina source income or if the income was subject to North Carolina income tax withholdings. Unless you go out of business or permanently cease paying wages during the calendar year, electronically file Form NC-3 , Annual Withholding Reconciliation, and State's copies of the forms W-2, W-2G, 1099-MISC, 1099-R, NC-1099PS, NC-1099-ITIN, or 1042-S .
On February 16	Begin withholding for each employee who previously claimed exemption from withholding but has not given you a new Form NC-4 EZ for the current year. If the employee does not give you a new completed Form NC-4, withhold tax as if he or she is single with zero withholding allowances.
Due Dates for: Quarterly Filers	See Section 15 for due dates for reporting and paying the tax withheld on a quarterly basis.
Monthly Filers	See Section 16 for due dates for reporting and paying the tax withheld on a monthly basis.
Semiweekly Filers	See Section 17 for due dates for reporting and paying the tax withheld on a semiweekly basis.

NOTE: If any due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, use the next business day.

Instructions and Explanations

Section 1. General Information

North Carolina law requires withholding of income tax from:

- (a) Salaries and wages of all North Carolina residents regardless of where earned,
- (b) Wages of nonresidents for services performed in North Carolina,
- (c) Non-wage compensation paid to nonresidents for certain personal services performed in North Carolina,
- (d) Pension payments paid to North Carolina residents if federal withholding is required on the payments,
- (e) Contractors identified by an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) if the contractor performs services in North Carolina for compensation other than wages, and
- (f) Winnings of $600 or more paid by the North Carolina State Lottery Commission at the rate of 5.25 percent.

Each employee must complete a North Carolina Withholding Allowance Certificate, Form NC-4, Form NC-4 EZ, or Form NC-4 NRA. To determine the amount of tax to be withheld, select the table in this book which corresponds with the employee's filing status and your payroll period; i.e., weekly, biweekly, etc.; locate the gross wages in the left-hand column and then follow across to the column which corresponds to the number of withholding allowances claimed by the employee. The tax withheld can also be computed by using the Percentage Method or Annualized Wages Method. Important: Always use single filing status for Nonresident Aliens.

When you determine that you will begin paying wages, non-wage compensation, or pension payments subject to North Carolina income tax withholding, you must file Form NC-BR (Business Registration Application for Income Tax Withholding, Sales and Use Tax, and Machinery and Equipment Tax) with the Department of Revenue to obtain a North Carolina withholding identification number. See Section 3 for applying for a North Carolina withholding identification number.

The tax must be withheld from each payment of wages, and the amount is considered to be held in trust until it is paid to the Department. North Carolina does not use a depository system for income tax withheld. A report of the tax withheld must be filed and the tax paid by the required due date. You are required to report and pay the tax withheld on a quarterly, monthly, or semiweekly basis. Your initial filing frequency is determined by your average monthly withholding as indicated on Form NC-BR. An employer required to file a certain frequency (semiweekly, monthly, or quarterly) because of his average monthly withholding, must continue on that basis until the Department of Revenue authorizes a change to a new filing frequency. An employer who in a later tax year is required to deduct and withhold an average which would change the employer to a different filing frequency should contact the Department to request a change in filing frequency. The employer must continue on the same filing frequency until written authorization to change is received from the Department of Revenue.

At the end of each year, you must prepare W-2 and 1099 statements, furnish copies to the employees and contractors for use in filing their income tax returns and submit the information to the Department of Revenue along with Form NC-3, Annual Withholding Reconciliation.

You can file and pay your withholding tax online. For additional details, see Sections 18 and 19. If you would like to file and pay your withholding tax by mail, use the preaddressed forms which will be mailed to you after you are registered. If the coupon booklet is misplaced, request a new one from the Department. If a blank form is used, show the name and North Carolina withholding identification number exactly as they appeared on previous reports.

If you go out of business or cease to pay wages permanently, complete the "Out of Business Notification" and include it with the final report. You can also let us know that you are out of business by calling 1-877-252-3052 (toll free) and selecting Business Taxes. Follow the menu instructions under withholding tax to close your withholding account. Within 30 days of the last payment of wages, electronically file Form NC-3, Annual Withholding Reconciliation, with State's copies of the W-2 and 1099 statements and provide copies of the W-2 and 1099 statements to all employees and contractors.

The principal duties of employers are outlined in the calendar on page 2, and the requirements concerning withholding, reporting and paying North Carolina income tax are summarized in this booklet. North Carolina procedures and practices are similar to those of the federal government, with some differences which are explained in the following sections. For additional information contact the North Carolina Department of Revenue, Taxpayer Assistance-Withholding Tax, P.O. Box 25000, Raleigh, North Carolina 27640-0001 or you may call 1-877-252-3052.

Section 2. Who are Employers?

An employer is any person or organization for whom an individual performs any service as an employee. The term includes federal, state, and local governmental agencies as well as religious, charitable, educational, and other nonprofit organizations even though they may be exempt for other tax purposes. Note: Compliance with any of the provisions of North Carolina withholding by a nonresident employer will not be deemed to be evidence that the nonresident is doing business in this State.

Section 3. Withholding Identification Number

Each new employer required to withhold North Carolina income tax must complete and file Form NC-BR with the Department of Revenue. (Note: This form may also be used to apply for a sales and use tax number.) The Department will assign a withholding identification number which should be recorded in a permanent place and used on all reports and correspondence concerning withholding. Do not use the number of another employer from whom you acquired a business or your federal identification number. You should receive your new State identification number within four weeks of filing Form NC-BR.

Each employer corporation is required to apply for a withholding identification number, and each must maintain separate records. Changing a proprietorship or partnership to a corporation requires a new withholding identification number and reconciliation of the old account. A new identification number generally is not required merely to change a trade name or to show partial changes of ownership in a partnership, such as adding or removing the name of one partner. Report the details and date of such changes to the Department of Revenue by letter.

Each employer should have only one withholding identification number. Even though you have several operations, you may file a single report for your total payroll. If, however, you operate distinct businesses and maintain completely separate payrolls, you may register each. If you register each business, you must file separate reports for each business, including separate annual reconciliations at the end of the year.

Section 4. Who are Employees?

See Federal Publication 15, Circular E, Employer's Tax Guide, for a definition of employee.

Section 5. Treatment of Residents and Nonresidents

(a) Resident employees. An employee who is a resident of this State is subject to North Carolina withholding on all of his wages, whether he works within or outside the State; except that, to prevent double withholding and to anticipate any allowable tax credit, North Carolina withholding is not required from wages paid to a resident for services performed in another state if that state requires the employer to withhold. Withholding does not relieve the employee of the obligation to file a North Carolina individual income tax return and pay any balance due after tax credit.

(b) Nonresident employees. A nonresident employee is subject to North Carolina withholding on any part of his wages paid for performing services in this State. Any relief from double withholding must be granted by the employee's state of residence. See Section 7 for information on withholding from nonresidents who receive non-wage compensation for personal services performed in North Carolina.

(c) Employers operating in interstate commerce. The Amtrak Reauthorization and Improvement Act of 1990 provides that no part of the compensation paid to an employee of an interstate railroad subject to the jurisdiction of the Surface Transportation Board (STB) may be subject to income tax, or income tax withholding, in any state except the state of the employee's residence when such employee performs regular assigned duties in more than one state. The Act also precludes the taxation of compensation paid by an interstate motor carrier subject to the jurisdiction of the STB or to an employee of a private motor carrier performing services in two or more states except by the state of the employee's residence. Therefore, the compensation received by such nonresident employees for services performed in this State will not be subject to North Carolina income tax or income tax withholding.

Under the Federal Aviation Act (49 USCS-40116), a nonresident airline employee rendering service on an aircraft would not be liable for North Carolina income tax unless the scheduled flight time in North Carolina is more than 50 percent of the total scheduled flight time during the calendar year. If the employee's flight logs show that more than 50 percent of the scheduled flight time is in North Carolina, the amount of income reportable to this state would be based on the percentage that the North Carolina flight time is to the total flight time for the year.

Section 6. Withholding from Pensions, Annuities, and Deferred Compensation

Definitions. Unless otherwise specified below, the definitions, provisions, and requirements of Section 3405 of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to federal withholding on pensions are applicable to State withholding on pensions.

Pension payer – A payer or a plan administrator with respect to a pension payment under Section 3405 of the Code.

Pension payment – A periodic payment or a nonperiodic distribution, as those terms are defined in Section 3405 of the Code.

Withholding Required. A pension payer required to withhold federal tax under Section 3405 of the Code on a pension payment to a North Carolina resident must also withhold State income tax from the pension payment. If a payee has provided a North Carolina address to a pension payer, the payee is presumed to be a North Carolina resident and the payer is required to withhold State tax unless the payee elects no withholding. A pension payer that either fails to withhold or to remit tax that is withheld is liable for the tax.

A pension payer must treat a pension payment paid to an individual as if it were an employer's payment of wages to an employee. If the pension payer has more than one arrangement under which distributions may be made to an individual, each arrangement must be treated separately.

Amount to Withhold. In the case of a periodic payment, as defined in Code Section 3405(e)(2), the payer must withhold as if the recipient were a single person with zero allowances unless the recipient provides an allowance certificate (Form NC-4P) reflecting a different filing status or number of allowances. Form NC-4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments, is used by a recipient of pension payments who is a North Carolina resident to report the correct filing status, number of allowances, and any additional amount the recipient wants withheld from the pension payment. It may also be used to elect not to have State income tax withheld. In lieu of Form NC-4P, payers may use a substitute form if it contains all the provisions included on Form NC-4P.

For a nonperiodic distribution, as defined in Code Section 3405(e)(3), four percent (4%) of the distribution must be withheld. A nonperiodic distribution includes an eligible rollover distribution as defined in Code Section 3405(c)(3). State law differs from federal law with respect to eligible rollover distributions. Federal law imposes a higher rate of withholding on eligible rollover distributions than on other nonperiodic distributions. State law imposes the same rate of withholding on all nonperiodic distributions.

Election Not to Have Income Tax Withheld. A recipient may elect not to have income tax withheld from a pension payment unless the pension payment is an eligible rollover distribution. A recipient of a pension payment that is an eligible rollover distribution does not have the option of electing not to have State tax withheld from the distribution.

Except for eligible rollovers, a recipient of a pension payment who has federal income tax withheld can elect not to have State income tax withheld.

An election not to have tax withheld from a pension payment remains in effect until revoked by the recipient. An election not to have tax withheld is void if the recipient does not furnish the recipient's tax identification number to the payer or furnishes an incorrect identification number. In such cases, the payer will withhold on periodic payments as if the recipient is single claiming zero allowances and on nonperiodic distributions at the rate of four percent (4%).

A nonresident with a North Carolina address should also use Form NC-4P to elect not to have State income tax withheld. Completing Form NC-4P and electing not to have State tax withheld does not necessarily mean that the recipient is a resident of North Carolina.

Exceptions to Withholding. Tax is not required to be withheld from the following pension payments:

- (1) A pension payment that is wages.
- (2) Any portion of a pension payment that meets both of the following conditions:
 - a. It is not a distribution or payment from an individual retirement plan as defined in Section 7701 of the Code.
 - b. The pension payer reasonably believes it is not taxable to the recipient.
- (3) A distribution described in Section 404(k)(2) of the Code, relating to dividends on corporate securities.
- (4) A pension payment that consists only of securities of the recipient's employer corporation plus cash not in excess of $200 in lieu of securities of the employer corporation.
- (5) Distributions of retirement benefits received from North Carolina State and local government retirement systems and federal retirement systems identified as qualifying retirement systems under the terms of the Bailey/Emory/Patton settlement that are paid to retirees who were vested in the retirement systems as of August 12, 1989.

Notification Procedures for Pension Payers. A pension payer is required to provide each recipient with notice of the right not to have State withholding apply and of the right to revoke the election. The notice requirements for North Carolina purposes are the same as the federal notice requirements, which are provided in Section 3405(e)(10) of the Code. Section D of Federal Regulation 35.3405-1 contains sample notices that may be modified for State purposes to satisfy the notice and election requirements for periodic payments and nonperiodic distributions.

Instead of notification that tax will be withheld unless the recipient chooses not to have tax withheld, pension payers may notify recipients whose annual payments are less than $10,000 that no State tax will be withheld unless the recipient chooses to have State withholding apply. Such notice may be provided when making the first payment.

Reporting and Paying the Withheld Tax. A pension payer required to withhold State tax from a pension payment but not already registered with the Department of Revenue for wage withholding must register by completing Form NC-BR. The completed form should be mailed to the N.C. Department of Revenue, Business Registration Unit, P.O. Box 25000, Raleigh, North Carolina 27640-0100. The payer will be assigned an account identification number and will receive forms for paying the State tax withheld. The payer will initially be classified as a quarterly filer. The filing frequency may change after the first year depending on the amount of tax withheld.

A payer that withholds tax from pensions and also withholds tax from wages must report the withholding from pensions with the wage withholding unless the payer chooses to report the withholding from pensions separately. For those payers that do not choose to report the two types of withholding separately, the payment of tax withheld from pensions is due at the time the withholding from wages is due and the payer will be subject to penalties and interest on both types of withholding based on that due date. Payers that also withhold from wages but choose to report the withholding from pensions separately must file Form NC-BR to receive a separate account identification number. They will receive separate forms for paying the tax withheld from pensions.

A payer that initially chooses to report withholding from pensions separately may, at any time, begin reporting the two types of withholding together. If combined reporting is preferred, a payer should report the combined withholding under the account number for reporting wages. The payer should complete the Out of Business Notification for the separate pension withholding account and file it with the Department. The separate withholding account will be closed. A payer that initially reports the two types of withholding at the same time may choose to begin reporting the withholding on pensions separately by notifying the Business Registration Unit. The payer must continue to report the two types of withholding together until the payer receives the separate account identification number and remittance forms from the Department. In either case, the payer must file separate annual reconciliations beginning with the year in which the choice is changed.

Annual Statements. Payers must report pension income and State tax withheld on Federal Form 1099-R, Distributions From Pensions, Annuities, Retirement or Profit-sharing Plans, IRAs, Insurance Contracts, etc. Form 1099-R must be given to the recipient on or before January 31 following the calendar year in which the pension payments were made. The payer must electronically file Form NC-3, Annual Withholding Reconciliation, with the State's copies of Federal Form 1099-R. Form NC-3 reconciles the amounts withheld from each recipient. Payers choosing to report pension withholding with wage withholding must file one annual reconciliation report that includes the two types of withholding. Payers subject to both wage withholding and pension withholding that report the two types of withholding separately must file separate annual reconciliations for each type of withholding. Unless you go out of business or permanently cease making distributions from pensions, annuities, retirement or profit-sharing plans, IRAs, insurance contracts, etc., the annual reconciliation for withholding from pensions is due on or before January 31.

Section 7. Withholding from Nonresidents for Personal Services Performed in North Carolina

The following definitions are applicable with respect to withholding from non-wage compensation paid to nonresidents for personal services performed in North Carolina:

- (a) Compensation. Consideration a payer pays a nonresident individual or nonresident entity for personal services performed in North Carolina.
- (b) Nonresident contractor. A nonresident individual who performs, or a nonresident entity that provides for the performance, in North Carolina for compensation other than wages any personal services in connection with a performance, an entertainment or athletic event, a speech, or the creation of a film, radio, or television program.
- (c) Nonresident entity. Any of the following:
 - (1) A foreign limited liability company that has not obtained a certificate of authority from the Secretary of State pursuant to Article 7 of Chapter 57C of the General Statutes.
 - (2) A foreign limited partnership or a general partnership formed under the laws of any jurisdiction other than North Carolina, unless the partnership maintains a permanent place of business in North Carolina.

(3) A foreign corporation that has not obtained a certificate of authority from the Secretary of State pursuant to Article 15 of Chapter 55 of the General Statutes.

(d) Payer. A person who, in the course of a trade or business, pays a nonresident individual or a nonresident entity compensation for personal services performed in North Carolina.

(e) Personal services income. Non-wage compensation.

(f) Withholding agent. An employer or a payer.

Withholding requirement. If, in the course of your trade or business, you pay compensation of more than $1,500 during the calendar year to a nonresident contractor for personal services performed in North Carolina, you must withhold North Carolina income tax at the rate of 4 percent from the compensation.

The tax must be withheld from any nonresident individual and from any nonresident entity (C or S corporation, partnership, or limited liability company) receiving personal services income in connection with a performance, an entertainment or athletic event, a speech or the creation of a film, radio, or television program. Tax is not required to be withheld from a corporation or limited liability company that has obtained a certificate of authority from the Secretary of State or from a partnership that has a permanent place of business in North Carolina.

No tax is required to be withheld from an entity that is exempt from North Carolina corporate income tax under G.S. 105-130.11. This includes any organization that is exempt from federal income tax under the Internal Revenue Code. The entity must provide documentation of its tax exemption to the payer, such as a copy of the organization's federal determination letter of tax exemption or a copy of a letter of tax exemption from the Department of Revenue.

Tax is not required to be withheld from personal services income paid to an individual who is an ordained or licensed member of the clergy or who is a resident of North Carolina. The payer must obtain from any individual from whom the payer does not withhold because the individual is a resident of this State the individual's address and social security number and retain this information in its records.

Withholding is only required if the contractor is paid more than $1,500 during the calendar year. No tax is required to be withheld if a payment is $1,500 or less and, at the time the payment is made, the payer does not believe that the total compensation to be paid to the personal services provider during the year will exceed $1,500. If additional compensation paid later in the year causes total compensation for the year to exceed $1,500, the payer is not required to withhold tax from the additional compensation to make up for the compensation from which no tax was withheld. If the payer expects to pay a contractor more than $1,500 during the year, the payer should withhold from each payment even if the first payment does not exceed $1,500.

How and when to pay the tax withheld. If you pay personal services income to a nonresident contractor and you do not already have a withholding account identification number, you must complete Form NC-BR.

If you withhold from both personal services income and wages, you must report the withholding from personal services income with the wage withholding. You must report and pay the tax withheld from nonresident personal services income on a quarterly, monthly, or semiweekly basis depending on the average amount withheld per month. (See Sections 15, 16 and 17 for determining the basis on which to file.)

Form NC-1099PS and annual reconciliation requirement. If you withhold tax from a nonresident contractor, you must give the contractor Form NC-1099PS, Personal Services Income Paid To A Nonresident, showing the amount of compensation paid and the amount of North Carolina income tax withheld during the calendar year. Federal Form 1099-MISC may be filed in lieu of Form NC-1099PS if it reflects the amount of North Carolina income tax withheld. Form NC-1099PS must be given to the contractor by January 31 following the calendar year in which the compensation was paid. If the personal services are completed before the end of the calendar year and the contractor requests the form, it is due within 45 days after the last payment of compensation to the contractor.

You must electronically file Form NC-3, Annual Withholding Reconciliation, with the State's copies of Form NC-1099PS or Federal Form 1099-MISC. Unless you go out of business or permanently cease paying personal services income, Form NC-3 and the required 1099 statements are due on or before January 31 for the preceding calendar year. Form NC-3 reconciles the amount withheld from each contractor. Payers who report only personal services withholding must file the annual reconciliation report and include all required 1099 statements. Payers who are subject to both wage withholding and withholding from personal services income must file one annual reconciliation report that includes all required W-2 and 1099 statements.

Amounts withheld in error. If you withhold an amount in error and the amount is refunded to the contractor before the end of the calendar year and before you give the NC-1099PS to the contractor, do not report the refunded amount on the NC-1099PS or the annual reconciliation statement. If the amount withheld in error has already been paid to the Department, reduce your next withholding payment accordingly. Amounts are considered withheld in error if they are withheld from a person who is not a contractor, if it is withheld from a payment that is not compensation, or if it is in excess of the amount required to be withheld.

Section 8. Withholding on Contractors Identified by an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN)

The following definitions are applicable with respect to withholding on contractors identified by an ITIN:

(a) Compensation. Consideration a payer pays to an ITIN holder who is a contractor and not an employee for services performed in North Carolina.

(b) ITIN contractor. An ITIN holder who performs services in North Carolina for compensation other than wages.

(c) ITIN holder. A person whose taxpayer identification number is an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN). An ITIN is issued by the IRS to a person who is required to have a taxpayer identification number but does not have and is not eligible to obtain a social security number.

(d) Payer. A person who, in the course of a trade or business, pays compensation to an ITIN holder who is a contractor and not an employee for services performed in North Carolina.

Withholding requirement. If, in the course of your trade or business, you pay compensation of more than $1,500 during the calendar year to an ITIN contractor, you must withhold North Carolina income tax at the rate of 4 percent of the compensation paid to the contractor. However, withholding is not required on compensation paid to an ITIN holder who is temporarily admitted to the United States to perform agricultural labor or services under an H-2A visa and who is not subject to federal income tax withholding under Section 1441 of the Code.

How and when to pay the tax withheld. If you pay compensation to an ITIN contractor and you do not already have a withholding account identification number, you must complete Form NC-BR. You must report and pay the tax withheld on a quarterly, monthly, or semiweekly basis depending on the average amount withheld during the month. (See Sections 15, 16, and 17 for determining the basis on which to file.) If you withhold from ITIN contractor compensation and wages, you must report the withholding from ITIN contractor compensation with the wage withholding.

Form NC-1099-ITIN and annual reconciliation requirement. If you withhold tax from an ITIN contractor, you must give the contractor Form NC-1099-ITIN, Compensation Paid to an ITIN Contractor, showing the amount of compensation paid and the amount of North Carolina income tax withheld during the calendar year. Federal Form 1099-MISC may be filed in lieu of Form NC-1099-ITIN if it reflects the amount of North Carolina income tax withheld. Form NC-1099-ITIN must be given to the contractor by January 31 following the calendar year in which the compensation was paid. If the services are completed before the end of the calendar year and the contractor requests the form, it is due within 45 days after the last payment of compensation to the contractor.

You must electronically file Form NC-3, Annual Withholding Reconciliation, with the State's copies of Form NC-1099-ITIN or Federal Form 1099-MISC. Unless you go out of business or permanently cease paying compensation, Form NC-3 and the required 1099 statements are due on or before January 31 for the preceding calendar year. Form NC-3 reconciles the amount withheld from each contractor. Payers who report only ITIN compensation withholding must file the annual reconciliation report and include all required 1099 statements. Payers who are subject to both wage withholding and withholding from ITIN compensation must file one annual reconciliation report that includes all required W-2 and 1099 statements.

Amounts withheld in error. If you withhold an amount in error and the amount is refunded to the contractor before the end of the calendar year and before you give the NC-1099-ITIN to the contractor, do not report the refunded amount on the NC-1099-ITIN or the annual reconciliation statement. If the amount withheld in error has already been paid to the Department, reduce your next withholding payment accordingly. Amounts are considered withheld in error if they are withheld from a person who is not a contractor, if it is withheld from a payment that is not compensation, or if it is in excess of the amount required to be withheld.

Section 9. Payee's Identification Number

An individual employee or nonresident contractor is identified by the individual's social security number. A contractor that is not an individual (corporation, partnership, limited liability company) is identified by its federal identification number. Show the payee's social security number, federal identification number and the name and address on Forms W-2 and NC-1099PS and use it in any correspondence pertaining to a particular employee or contractor. ITIN contractors are identified by their ITIN numbers. An ITIN number is issued by the IRS to a person who is required to have a taxpayer identification number but does not have and is not eligible to obtain a social security number. Show the payee's ITIN number on Form NC-1099-ITIN.

Section 10. Withholding from Wages

The term wages has the same meaning as in Section 3401 of the Internal Revenue Code. North Carolina has no provision requiring backup withholding.

Farm labor. Farmers are required to withhold State income tax from wages paid to agricultural workers if they are required to withhold tax for federal purposes.

See Federal Publication 15, Circular E, Employer's Tax Guide, for additional information regarding taxable wages.

Section 11. Payments Exempt from Withholding

Employers are required to withhold on wages to the same extent required for federal income tax purposes. A recipient of any payments exempt from withholding is required to pay estimated income tax if the recipient's income meets the minimum requirements for filing.

If you and the individual wish to enter into a voluntary agreement to withhold North Carolina tax, you must report and pay the amount withheld to the Department, and the individual will receive credit on his income tax return provided you follow the rules which apply to withholding. Since the agreement is voluntary, credit cannot be claimed for any amount withheld unless it is properly paid to the Department of Revenue. The individual should complete a withholding allowance certificate, Form NC-4, NC-4 EZ, or NC-4 NRA, and request that the agreed amount be withheld.

Domestic employees. Employers are not required to withhold State income tax from the wages of domestic employees; however, the employer and employee may enter into a voluntary agreement to withhold from the employee's wages. Employers may wish to contact the Employment Security Commission regarding any employment insurance liability.

Military Spouses. The Military Spouses Residency Relief Act of 2009 amended the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act ("SCRA") to provide that a spouse shall neither lose nor acquire domicile or residence in a state when the spouse is present in the state solely to be with the servicemember in compliance with the servicemember's military orders if the residence or domicile is the same for both the servicemember and spouse.

The Act prohibits North Carolina from taxing the income earned for services performed in North Carolina by a spouse of a servicemember stationed in North Carolina if (1) the servicemember is present in North Carolina solely in compliance with military orders; (2) the spouse is in North Carolina solely to be with the servicemember; and (3) the spouse is domiciled in the same state as the servicemember. If all three of the conditions are met, an employer is not required to withhold North Carolina tax from wages paid to such military spouses if the employee has furnished to their employer Form NC-4 EZ with Line 4 checked. To maintain the exemption, the employee must submit a new Form NC-4 EZ each year. The Act does not apply to military spouses who are domiciled in North Carolina. Withholding from wages paid to military spouses domiciled in North Carolina is still required.

Seamen. The Vessel Worker Tax Fairness Act, 46 U.S.C., 11108, prohibits withholding of state income tax from the wages of a seaman on a vessel engaged in foreign, coastwide, inter-coastal, interstate, or noncontiguous trade or an individual employed on a fishing vessel or any fish processing vessel. Vessels engaged in other activity do not come under the restrictions; however, any seaman who is employed in coastwide trade between ports in this State may have tax withheld if the withholding is pursuant to a voluntary agreement between such seaman and his employer.

Indian Reservation Income: Employers are not required to withhold State income tax from wages earned or received by an enrolled member of a federally recognized Indian tribe if such income is derived from activities on a federally recognized Indian reservation while the member resided on the reservation. An employee who meets these criteria should furnish their employer Form NC-4 EZ with Line 3 checked. To maintain the exemption, the employee must submit a new Form NC-4 EZ each year. Intangible income having a situs on the reservation and retirement income associated with activities on the reservation are considered income derived from activities on the reservation.

Section 12. Payroll Period

See Federal Publication 15, Circular E, Employer's Tax Guide, for information on payroll period.

Section 13. Supplemental Wages

If you pay supplemental wages separately (or combine them with regular wages in a single payment and specify the amount of each), the income tax withholding method depends in part on whether you withhold income tax from your employee's regular wages. If you withhold income tax from an employee's regular wages, you can use one of these methods for the supplemental wages:

- (a) Withhold a flat 5.35%, or
- (b) Add the supplemental and regular wages for the most recent payroll period this year. Then figure the income tax as if the total were a single payment. Subtract the tax already withheld from the regular wages. Withhold the remaining tax from the supplemental wages. If you did not withhold income tax from the employee's regular wages, use method (b).

Vacation pay is subject to withholding as if it were a regular wage payment. If vacation pay is paid in addition to the regular wages, treat the vacation pay as supplemental wages. If vacation pay is for a time longer than your usual payroll period, spread it over the pay periods for which you pay it.

See Federal Publication 15, Employer's Tax Guide, for additional information on supplemental wages.

Tips treated as supplemental wages. Withhold the income tax on tips from wages or from funds the employee makes available. If an employee receives regular wages and reports tips, figure income tax as if the tips were supplemental wages. If you have not withheld income tax from the regular wages, add the tips to the regular wages and withhold income tax on the total. If you withheld income tax from the regular wages, you can withhold on the tips by method (a) or (b).

Section 14. Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, Form NC-4, Form NC-4 EZ, and Form NC-4 NRA

Each new employee must complete and sign a North Carolina Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, Form NC-4, Form NC-4 EZ, or Form NC-4 NRA. If an employee does not give you a completed Form NC-4, Form NC-4 EZ, or Form NC-4 NRA, you must withhold tax as if the employee is single with zero withholding allowances. A certificate filed by a new employee is effective upon the first payment of wages thereafter and remains in effect until a new one is furnished unless the employee claimed total exemption from withholding during the prior year. Important: A military spouse who claims exemption from withholding under the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act must submit a new Form NC-4 EZ each year. The military spouse must attach a copy of their spousal military identification card and a copy of the servicemember's most recent leave and earnings statement. The military spouse must also submit a new NC-4 EZ immediately upon determining that the spouse no longer meets the requirements for the exemption. State and federal definitions of dependent, single person, married, head of household and surviving spouse are the same; however, the number of allowances to which an individual is entitled will differ. Federal Withholding Allowance Certificates are not acceptable.

You are not required to determine whether the total amount of allowances claimed is greater than the total amount to which the employee is entitled. However, you should immediately advise the Department if you believe that the amount of allowances claimed by an employee is greater than the amount to which such employee is entitled.

Nonresident Alien Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, Form NC-4 NRA. Because nonresident aliens are generally not allowed a standard deduction, nonresident alien employees must complete and sign a North Carolina Nonresident Alien Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, Form NC-4 NRA. You must withhold tax using the "Single" filing status regardless of the employee's actual marital status. If an employee does not give you a completed NC-4 NRA, you must withhold as single with zero allowances and also withhold the additional tax as directed below.

Form NC-4 NRA requires the nonresident alien employee to enter on Line 2 an additional amount of Income tax to be withheld for each pay period to account for the inclusion of the standard deduction in the wage bracket tables, percentage, and annualized methods of computing income tax withheld. The additional tax to withhold per pay period is identified in the following chart and represents the income tax on the standard deduction for the single filing status ($10,000) divided by the number of payroll periods during the year. For example, an employee paid monthly is required to enter $45 ($$10,000 \times 5.35\% \div 12$).

Payroll Period	Weekly	Biweekly	Semimonthly	Monthly
Additional Withholding	$10	$21	$22	$45

The additional withholding results in overwithholding in two instances – (1) employees who earn less than $10,000 per year, and (2) employees who are students or business apprentices and residents of India. To prevent overwithholding in the first instance, an employer should limit the additional withholding to the lesser of the amount reported by the employee on Line

2 or 5.35% of the wages for that period if the amount of wages for that period multiplied by the number of payroll periods during the year is $10,000 or less. The following chart lists the wages per period that qualify for the 5.35% limitation. Wages exceeding the amounts in the chart are subject to the entire amount of additional withholding.

Payroll Period	Additional withholding from Line 2 limited to 5.35% of the amount of wages if wages do not exceed:
Weekly	$192
Biweekly	$385
Semimonthly	$417
Monthly	$833

Example: Employee is a nonresident alien and is paid on a monthly basis. Employee earns wages of \$500 in February 2019. Employee files a Form NC-4 NRA claiming zero allowances on Line 1 and additional withholding of \$45 on Line 2. According to the tax tables, no withholding is due. Without the modification, Employer will withhold \$45. Using the modification, Employer will withhold \$27 ($500 \times 5.35\%$).

To prevent overwithholding in the second instance, an employee who is a student or business apprentice and a resident of India should enter $0 on Line 2 of Form NC-4 NRA.

Wages that are exempt from U. S. income tax under an income tax treaty are generally exempt from withholding. Residents of Canada and Mexico who enter or leave the United States at frequent intervals are not subject to withholding on their wages if these persons either (1) perform duties in transportation service between the United States and Canada or Mexico, or (2) perform duties connected to the construction, maintenance, or operation of water-way, viaduct, dam, or bridge crossed by, or crossing, the boundary between the United States and Canada or the boundary between the United States and Mexico. Nonresident aliens who are bona fide residents of the U.S. Virgin Islands are not subject to withholding of tax on income earned while temporarily employed in the United States.

Submission of certain withholding allowance certificates. Although no longer required by the IRS, North Carolina requires an employer to submit copies of any certificates (Form NC-4, Form NC-4 EZ, or Form NC-4 NRA) on which the employee claims more than 10 withholding allowances or claims exemption from withholding and the employee's weekly wages would normally exceed an amount equal to the North Carolina standard deduction for an individual with a filing status of single divided by 52. For tax year 2019, the weekly wage amount would be $192 (standard deduction for single individual is $10,000 divided by 52 = $192). Retain the original certificate in your files.

When to submit. An employer filing quarterly withholding reports is required to submit copies of the certificates received during the quarter at the time for filing the quarterly report. An employer filing monthly withholding reports is required to submit copies of the certificates received during the quarter at the time for filing the monthly report for the third month of the calendar quarter. Copies may be submitted earlier and for shorter reporting periods.

Mail the certificate to: North Carolina Department of Revenue, Tax Compliance-Withholding Tax, PO Box 25000, Raleigh, North Carolina 27640-0001.

Penalty. If an employee provides a withholding allowance certificate that contains information which has no reasonable basis and results in a lesser amount of tax being withheld than would have been withheld had the employee furnished reasonable information, the employee is subject to a penalty of 50 percent of the amount not properly withheld.

If an employee's withholding allowances should decrease, requiring more tax to be withheld, the employee is required to provide an amended certificate within 10 days after the change. If the allowance increases, requiring less tax to be withheld, the employee may provide an amended certificate any time after the change.

Additional withholding allowances may be claimed by taxpayers expecting to have allowable itemized deductions exceeding the standard deduction or allowable adjustments to income. One additional allowance may be claimed for each $2,500 that the itemized deductions are expected to exceed the standard deduction and for each $2,500 of adjustments reducing income. If an employee will be entitled to a tax credit, he may claim one additional allowance for each $134.

Additional withholding. To increase withholding, an employee may claim fewer allowances or may enter into an agreement with his employer and request that an additional amount be withheld by entering the desired amount on Line 2 of Form NC-4 or Form NC-4 EZ or Line 3 of Form NC-4 NRA.

Section 15. Quarterly Returns and Payments

An employer who withholds an average of less than $250 of North Carolina income tax per month must file a quarterly Withholding Return, Form NC-5, and pay the tax quarterly. The quarterly return and payment are due by the last day of the month following the end of the calendar quarter.

If you temporarily cease to pay wages after you are registered, you should file a return for each quarter even though you have no withholding or wages to report. Do not report more than one calendar quarter on one return.

Section 16. Monthly Returns and Payments

An employer who withholds an average of at least $250 but less than $2,000 of North Carolina income tax per month must file a monthly Withholding Return, Form NC-5, and pay the tax monthly. All monthly returns and payments are due by the 15th day of the month following the month in which the tax was withheld; except the return and payment for the month of December are due by January 31.

Section 17. Semiweekly Payments

An employer who withholds an average of $2,000 or more of North Carolina income tax per month must pay the tax withheld at the same times it is required to pay the tax withheld on the same wages for federal income tax purposes.

Each time you are required to deposit federal employment taxes (income tax withheld and FICA), you must remit the North Carolina income tax withheld on those same wages. Exception: For federal tax purposes, if an employer withholds $100,000 or more, the federal deposit is required on the next banking day. North Carolina law did not adopt that provision of federal law, and the State income tax withholding is due on or before the normal federal semiweekly due date for those wages. You must mail or deliver payment of the North Carolina income tax withheld by the due date. Payments are submitted with Form NC-5P, Withholding Payment Voucher.

Form NC-5Q, North Carolina Quarterly Income Tax Withholding Return, reconciles the tax paid for the quarter with the tax withheld for the quarter. Form NC-5Q must be filed each quarter on or before the last day of the month following the close of the quarter. Due dates for Form NC-5Q are the same as for your federal quarterly return (Federal Form 941). You have 10 additional days to file Form NC-5Q if you made all your required payments during the quarter and no additional tax is due. Detailed instructions are included in the forms packet which is mailed each quarter.

Section 18. Paying Withholding Tax Electronically

You can file your North Carolina withholding return and pay the tax online. The Department of Revenue's E-File system offers the convenience of paying the tax 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Payments can be made online by bank draft, MasterCard, or Visa. There is no fee for bank drafts, but there is a convenience fee for using MasterCard or Visa. The fee is $2.00 for every $100.00 increment of tax payment. Visit the Department's website at www.ncdor.gov and select eServices under the File & Pay tab.

Section 19. Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT)

If you remit an average of at least $20,000 each month in North Carolina withholding taxes, you are required to pay by electronic funds transfer (EFT). The Department will notify you if you are required to make payments by electronic funds transfer. You will not receive payment vouchers if you pay electronically. However, you must continue to file Form NC-5Q, North Carolina Quarterly Income Tax Return, and Form NC-3, Annual Withholding Reconciliation. If you are not required to pay electronically but you are interested in doing so, please contact the EFT Section (toll-free) at 1-877-308-9103. Local callers dial (919) 814-1501.

Section 20. Adjustments

You are liable to report and pay the correct amount of tax to the Department even if, through error, you deduct less than the correct amount from a wage payment. If you discover such an error, report and pay the correct amount of tax to the Department and recover the amount due to you from the employee by deducting it from later payments to the employee or adjusting in any other way agreeable to both of you.

If you deduct more than the correct amount of tax from any wage payment, you must report and pay to the Department the actual amount withheld unless you repay the over-deducted amount to the employee or otherwise make applicable administrative adjustments and maintain records to show that you have done so.

If you have reported an incorrect amount of tax, and you are a monthly or quarterly filer, you should file Form NC-5X, Amended Withholding Return. If additional tax is due, you must pay the total amount of tax and interest due with your amended return. If you have overpaid withholding tax, you may use Form NC-5X to claim a refund of the overpayment.

If you are a semiweekly filer and you discover an underpayment before filing your Form NC-5Q, Quarterly Income Tax Withholding Return, use Form NC-5PX, Amended Withholding Payment Voucher, and make the payment for additional tax and interest due. If you discover an underpayment while preparing your Form NC-5Q, report the underpayment on your Form NC-5Q and use Form NC-5PX to make the payment of additional tax and interest due. If you discover an underpayment after filing your Form NC-5Q, file Form NC-5Q to report the corrected amount of tax due, mark the form “amended”, and use Form NC-5PX to make the payment of additional tax and interest due. If you have overpaid withholding tax, you may use Form NC-5Q to claim a refund of the overpayment.

Section 21. Federal Corrections

If a federal determination changes or corrects the amount of tax you are required to withhold and pay to the IRS and the change or correction affects the amount of North Carolina income tax withholding, you must file the applicable North Carolina forms with the Department within six months of being notified about each change or correction.

If you voluntarily file an amended return or corrected statements with the IRS and the adjustments increase the amount of the North Carolina income tax withholding, you must file the applicable North Carolina forms with the Department within six months of filing the amended return or statements with the IRS. If the adjustment results in a decrease in the North Carolina income tax withholdings, generally, the claim for refund of overpayment of taxes must be filed with the Department on or before three years after the due date of the return or two years after payment of the tax, whichever is later. Important: No refund is allowed if you withheld the overpaid amount from the wages or compensation of your employees or contractors.

To report these federal corrections to the Department, you must file the applicable North Carolina Form NC-5X, Amended Withholding Return, Form NC-5Q, Quarterly Income Tax Withholding Return, or Form NC-3X, Amended Annual Withholding Reconciliation. For additional details about Form NC-5X and Form NC-5Q, see Section 20. For additional details about Form NC-3X, see Section 24.

Section 22. Payment of Tax

North Carolina does not use a depository system for income tax withheld. The amount you withhold is deemed by law to be held in trust by you for the State of North Carolina.

Penalties. The penalty for failure to timely file a withholding return is 5% of the tax due per month (maximum 25%). A penalty of 10 percent is required for failure to withhold or pay the tax when due. Interest is due from the time the tax was due until paid. Criminal penalties are provided for willful failure or refusal to withhold, file a return, or pay tax when due.

Relief for semiweekly filers. If a payment falls under the shortfall provisions of Federal Regulation 31.6302-1, you are not subject to interest or penalty on the additional tax due.

Personal liability. An employer who fails to withhold or pay the amount required to be withheld is personally and individually liable for such amounts, and the Department is required to assess the tax and penalty against the employer. If an employer has failed to collect or pay over income tax withheld or required to have been withheld, the tax not deducted or paid may be assessed against the responsible corporate officers or other such responsible officer whenever such taxes cannot be immediately collected from the employer. The liability includes the tax not deducted or paid previously assessed against the employer. More than one person may be liable as a person responsible for the payment of withholding taxes; however, the amount of the income tax withheld or required to have been withheld will be collected only once, whether from the employer or one or more responsible officers. The term “responsible officers” includes the president and the treasurer of a corporation, the manager of a limited liability company, and any officer of a corporation or member of a limited liability company who has a duty to deduct, account for, or pay over income tax withheld. It is not necessary that the failure to collect and pay the withholding amounts was willful; it is only necessary that the responsible officer failed to pay the tax withheld or required to have been withheld to the Secretary of Revenue.

Jeopardy reporting and payment. Whenever the Department deems the collection of tax to be in jeopardy, an employer may be required to report and pay the tax withheld at any time after payment of the wages.

Section 23. Wage and Tax Statements

At the end of each calendar year, prepare a North Carolina wage and tax statement for each employee. Report the total wages, tips and other compensation you paid to the employee during the calendar year to the same extent reported for federal tax purposes.

Residents and Nonresidents. For residents of North Carolina, report all wages regardless of where earned and report the North Carolina tax withheld. For nonresidents, report the wages earned in this State and the North Carolina tax withheld. If you show the total wages for the year and the total state tax withheld, provide a breakdown showing the wages paid and tax withheld for each state.

By January 31, give each employee a copy of the wage and tax statement for the preceding calendar year. If an employee ceases employment, provide the completed copy of the wage and tax statement to the employee within 30 days of the final wage payment.

If it is necessary to change a wage and tax statement after it has been given to the employee, issue a corrected statement clearly marked "Corrected by Employer". If a statement is lost, give the employee a substitute marked "Reissued by Employer".

Criminal and civil penalties are provided for willful failure to furnish the required statements or for willfully furnishing a false or fraudulent statement.

Section 24. Annual Withholding Reconciliation

Unless you terminate your business or permanently cease paying wages, Form NC-3, Annual Withholding Reconciliation, and the State's copy of each Form W-2, Form W-2G, Form NC-1099PS, Form NC-1099-ITIN, Federal Form 1099-MISC, Federal Form 1099R, and Federal Form 1042-S must be filed with the Department on or before January 31 for the preceding calendar year. During the calendar year, if you terminate your business or permanently cease paying wages and non-wage compensation subject to North Carolina income tax withholding, Form NC-3 and the required W-2 and 1099 statements must be filed within 30 days of the last payment of wages or non-wage compensation. Form NC-3 and the required W-2 and 1099 statements must be filed electronically.

You may amend a previously filed Form NC-3, by filing Form NC-3X, Amended Annual Withholding Reconciliation. Form NC-3X and corrected W-2 and 1099 statements must be filed electronically. Generally, Form NC-3X and the corrected statements must be filed with the Department as soon as you discover an error on Form NC-3 or any statement attached to Form NC-3. If your federal employment tax liability was impacted by a federal determination or correction or a voluntarily filed amended federal employment tax return or statement, see Section 21 for your State filing requirements related to your federal corrections.

Important: No refund is allowed if you withheld the overpaid amount from the wages or compensation of your employees or contractors.

See the Department's website, www.ncdor.gov/taxes/withholding-tax/enc3, for details and instructions on filing your Form NC-3, Form NC-3X, and the required W-2 and 1099 statements.

Section 25. Informational Return Penalties

If you fail to file Form NC-3, Annual Withholding Reconciliation, or Form NC-3X, Amended Annual Withholding Reconciliation, by the due date of the return, you will be subject to a failure to file informational return penalty of $50 per day, up to a maximum of $1,000. If you fail to file Form NC-3 or Form NC-3X in the format prescribed by the Secretary, you will be subject to a penalty of $200. Form NC-3 and Form NC-3X must be filed, with the required W-2 and 1099 statements, in an electronic format using the Department's eNC3 Application. A taxpayer may request a waiver of an informational return penalty by submitting Form NC-5501, Request for Waiver of an Informational Return Penalty.

See the Department's website, www.ncdor.gov/taxes/withholding-tax/enc3, for details and instructions on filing your Form NC-3, Form NC-3X, and the required W-2 and 1099 statements.

Section 26. Reporting 1099 Information

North Carolina law requires that a payer provide a nonresident contractor or ITIN contractor a statement showing the total compensation paid and the amount withheld during the calendar year. The payer must give Form NC-1099PS, Personal Services Income Paid To A Nonresident, or Form NC-1099-ITIN, Compensation Paid to an ITIN Contractor, to the contractor on or before January 31 following the calendar year in which the compensation was paid, or if the contractor requests the statement before then, within 45 days after the last payment of compensation to the contractor. Federal Form 1099-MISC may be filed in lieu of Form NC-1099PS or Form NC-1099-ITIN provided it shows the North Carolina income tax withheld. Also give each recipient of pension payments a copy of Federal Form 1099-R by January 31.

Form NC-1099NRS, Report of Sale of Real Property by Nonresidents, is required to be filed by any person buying real property located in North Carolina from a nonresident. The form must be filed within 15 days of the closing date of the sale.

Forms NC-1099PS, NC-1099-ITIN, NC-1099NRS, and any federal Form 1099-MISC or 1099-R, where either North Carolina income tax has been withheld or the recipient's address is located in North Carolina, must be filed with North Carolina; however, other reports of 1099 information (interest, rents, premiums, dividends, etc.) are not required to be reported to North Carolina unless the payments have not been reported to the Internal Revenue Service.

Payment Settlement Entities. North Carolina law requires a “payment settlement entity” to submit a duplicate of all information filed with the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to 6050W of the Internal Revenue Code (i.e. the Form 1099-K, “Payment Card and Third Party Network Transactions” information return) with the Department. A payment settlement entity has the same meaning as in Section 6050W of the Internal Revenue Code. The statute also requires the entity to submit the 1099K information return to the Secretary in an electronic format. This information return must be filed with the Department on or before March 31 for the preceding calendar year. Any 1099 information return not timely filed with the Secretary or in the format prescribed by the Secretary is subject to the informational return penalties listed in Section 25. See the Department’s website, www.ncdor.gov/file-pay/guidance-information-reporting, for details and instructions on filing your 1099K information return to the Secretary.

Section 27. Records to be Kept

You should retain the names, addresses, and social security numbers or ITIN numbers of employees or payees receiving payments; their withholding allowance certificates; the amounts and dates of wages and other payments and records of the amounts withheld; copies or records of all reports or returns filed; and records of all payments made to the Department. Retain these records for at least three years after the last filing of all required reports for a calendar year or the last payment of any amount due for the calendar year, whichever is later.

Section 28. Methods of Computing North Carolina Income Tax Withholding

There are three primary methods for computing the amount to withhold from wages. The wage bracket tables are on pages 19 through 45. The formula tables for the Percentage Method and the Annualized Wages Method are on pages 15 through 17. These methods are suitable for computer processing. In addition, an employer may use any other method or formula to determine the amount of tax required to be withheld if the amount determined is substantially the same as that obtained by using the wage bracket tables.

There is a difference in the tax calculated using the percentage method and the tax determined from the withholding tables. The tax tables calculate withholding tax based on an income range. The applicable standard deduction allowance is factored into the tables. The percentage method calculates withholding tax based on a specific dollar amount. Taxable income is derived by reducing gross wages by the appropriate deductions. For this reason, tax amounts derived from one method will differ slightly from those derived from the other.

1. Enter semimonthly wages		_____
2. Semimonthly portion of standard deduction	$416.67	_____
3. Multiply the number of allowances by $104.17		_____
4. Add Lines 2 and 3		_____
5. Net semimonthly wages. Subtract Line 4 from Line 1		_____
6. Tax to be withheld. Multiply Line 5 by .0535		_____

Semimonthly Payroll Period
Head of Household
1. Enter semimonthly wages		_____
2. Semimonthly portion of standard deduction	$625.00	_____
3. Multiply the number of allowances by $104.17		_____
4. Add Line 2 and Line 3		_____
5. Net semimonthly wages. Subtract Line 4 from Line 1		_____
6. Tax to be withheld. Multiply Line 5 by .0535		_____

Monthly Payroll Period
Single Person, Married Person, or Surviving Spouse
1. Enter monthly wages		_____
2. Monthly portion of standard deduction	$833.33	_____
3. Multiply the number of allowances by $208.33		_____
4. Add Line 2 and Line 3		_____
5. Net monthly wages. Subtract Line 4 from Line 1		_____
6. Tax to be withheld. Multiply Line 5 by .0535		_____

Monthly Payroll Period
Head of Household
1. Enter monthly wages		_____
2. Monthly portion of standard deduction	$1,250.00	_____
3. Multiply the number of allowances by $208.33		_____
4. Add Line 2 and Line 3		_____
5. Net monthly wages. Subtract Line 4 from Line 1		_____
6. Tax to be withheld. Multiply Line 5 by .0535		_____

Example:

An unmarried employee is paid $450.00 weekly. This employee has in effect a Form NC-4 or Form NC-4EZ claiming single with two withholding allowances. Using the percentage method, figure the income tax to withhold as follows:

1. Enter weekly wages		$450.00
2. Weekly portion of standard deduction	$192.31
3. Multiply the number of allowances by $48.08	$96.16
4. Add Line 2 and Line 3		$288.47
5. Net weekly wages. Subtract Line 4 from Line 1		$161.53
6. Tax to be withheld each payroll period. Multiply Line 5 by .0535		$9.00

Single Person, Married Person, or Surviving Spouse

1. Enter wages for current payroll period	_____
2. Enter number of payroll periods	_____
3. Annualized wages. Multiply Line 1 by Line 2		_____
4. Standard deduction	$10,000.00
5. Multiply the number of allowances by $2,500.00	_____
6. Add Line 4 and Line 5		_____
7. Net annualized wages. Subtract Line 6 from Line 3		_____
8. Annualized tax. Multiply Line 7 by .0535		_____
9. Enter the number of payroll periods from Line 2		_____
10. Tax to be withheld each payroll period. Divide Line 8 by Line 9		_____

Head of Household

1. Enter wages for current payroll period	_____
2. Enter number of payroll periods	_____
3. Annualized wages. Multiply Line 1 by Line 2		_____
4. Standard deduction	$15,000.00
5. Multiply the number of allowances by $2,500.00	_____
6. Add Line 4 and Line 5		_____
7. Net annualized wages. Subtract Line 6 from Line 3		_____
8. Annualized tax. Multiply Line 7 by .0535		_____
9. Enter the number of payroll periods from Line 2		_____
10. Tax to be withheld each payroll period. Divide Line 8 by Line 9		_____

Example:

An unmarried employee is paid $450.00 weekly. This employee has in effect a Form NC-4 or Form NC-4 EZ claiming single with two withholding allowances. Using the annualized wages method, figure the income tax to withhold as follows:

1. Enter wages for current payroll period		$450.00
2. Enter number of payroll periods		52
3. Annualized wages. Multiply Line 1 by Line 2		$23,400.00
4. Standard deduction	$10,000.00
5. Multiply the number of allowances by $2,500.00	$5,000.00
6. Add Line 4 and Line 5		$15,000.00
7. Net annualized wages. Subtract Line 6 from Line 3		$8,400.00
8. Annualized tax. Multiply Line 7 by .0535		$449.40
9. Enter the number of payroll periods from Line 2		52
10. Tax to be withheld each payroll period. Divide Line 8 by Line 9		$9.00

29. Wage Bracket Tables

The wage bracket tables begin on the next page. Using this method of withholding, select the table which corresponds with the employee's filing status (married, single, head of household, surviving spouse) as shown on the NC-4 or NC-4 EZ and your payroll period (weekly, biweekly, semimonthly, monthly). Locate the gross wages in the left hand column and follow across to the column which corresponds to the number of withholding allowances claimed by the employee.

The wage bracket tables are for up to 10 allowances. If an employee claims more than 10 allowances on the NC-4 or NC-4 EZ:

- (a) Multiply the number of withholding allowances over 10 by the allowance value for the payroll period. Use the amounts for one allowance in the Withholding Allowance Chart.
- (b) Subtract the result from the employee's wages.
- (c) On this amount, find and withhold the tax in the column for 10 allowances.

Withholding Allowance Chart
