General Instructions

The Office of the Taxpayer Advocate (OTA) is an independent division within the North Carolina Department of Revenue. The mission of the OTA is to instill confidence and integrity in the administration of North Carolina's tax laws by ensuring taxpayers are afforded their rights as stated in the Taxpayer's Bill of Rights.

When to Use This Form

Use this form if you are experiencing any of the following:

- You have been unable to resolve a State tax issue through normal administrative channels. You must have exhausted all administrative remedies provided by the Department before contacting the OTA
- A Departmental response has not been provided by the date promised, or within the statutorily required time
- You believe that instructions/information provided by the Department is incorrect resulting in confusion or hardship to the individual
- Noted existence of a recurrent issue that cannot be resolved through normal administrative channels

When Not to Use This Form

Do not use this form for any of the following:

- To request OTA to intercede during an audit
- To request the status of a refund
- To stop or protract collection activity
- To request a review of a tax notice or a reduced/denied refund (File Form NC-242, Objection and Request for Departmental Review)
- To request a waiver of taxes, penalties or interest
- To request a change in North Carolina's tax laws for individual situations
- To answer questions regarding tax assessments (Call the phone number listed on the tax notice)
- To request an Offer-in-Compromise
- To seek legal or tax return preparation advice
