Scope

- Offense occurred on/after August 1, 2020
- New sentence imposed on/after August 1, 2020
- New imprisonment ordered on or after August 1, 2020 (includes probation violations for offenses occurring prior to Aug 1 as well as court orders)
Minors in Jails

- OAAA
- Emancipated
- Chapter 20 at age 16/17
- Previously convicted boundovers or previous conviction involving impaired driving
During Stay

- Provide the same services, incentive programming, access to medical or MH/educ/vocational/recreation/phone calls/visitation, etc. that you provide to any youth under juvenile jurisdiction.
- JJ is exploring various programming to meet the long-term stay needs of some criminal court youth as well as specialized programming based on offense.
Updated NC-JOIN to admit criminal court youth to detention
  ◦ Detention reasons
  ◦ Billing
  ◦ Attach adult orders

Worked with AOC to create reference sheet for clerks to fax paperwork

Delineated forms by detention reason group
  ◦ Pre-trial
  ◦ Probation violation and/or modification
  ◦ Sentenced
  ◦ Held in contempt or failed to pay fine

Created criminal court youth policy on escapes, detoxification, and confidentiality of records
Training & Resources

- Worked w/UNC-School of Government to provide virtual training to detention directors and detention supervisors
- UNC-SOG created training video and blog:
  - UNC-SOG Blog Post - offers a quick summary of H593 including covered youth.
  - UNC-SOG Intro Video - This is a good 10-minute resource for a general overview of H593.
