New Rockingham Youth Development Center (YDC): Feb 2022, 60 beds
YDC Core Programming Components

- Restorative Justice - emphasis on the five elements of accountability:
  - Understanding how your behavior affected others.
  - Acknowledging that you had some amount of choice in your behavior.
  - Understanding the impact of your actions.
  - Taking steps to repair the harm and make amends.
  - Making changes necessary to avoid such behavior in the future.

- Motivational Interviewing
  - Building rapport and relationships, eliciting change talk, and exploring ambivalence.

- Financial Literacy
  - Income, expenses, fines, budgeting, saving, delaying gratification.
Pilot Site and Current Status

- Edgecombe Youth Development Center (initial site)
  - July 2019, all Edgecombe YDC staff were trained in 3-hour orientation to Restorative Justice Philosophy and Circle Process
  - August 2019, twenty Edgecombe YDC staff successfully completed a 5-day intensive training in the Restorative Justice Circle and Meditation Process
  - All staff will complete 12-hour Motivational Interviewing training by the end of December 2019. Financial literacy programming will begin shortly thereafter.

- One unit (16-beds) at Stonewall Jackson (2nd site)
  - Key staff members are participating in programming subcommittee meetings and small workgroup meetings at Edgecombe YDC.
  - Begin training staff in Restorative Justice and Motivational Interviewing early 2020.
Transportation
Juvenile Justice Transportation

- Effective 12/1/2019, Court Services will have 18 teams assigned to districts across the state
- Facilities will have 11 teams stationed at each state detention and YDC facility
- Facility teams can be utilized if assigned Court Services’ Teams are unavailable
- Transportation positions posted by October 2019
