Following unsuccessful negotiations with Governor Cooper, lawmakers approved a $24 billion compromise budget this week. Included in the legislation is a 5% raise over the biennium for all state employees, and additional five days of annual leave, and funding to implement Raise the Age. Additional budget highlights are summarized below. Governor Cooper has vetoed the bill, forcing lawmakers to decide whether to vote to override the Governor’s veto.

The North Carolina State Highway Patrol celebrated its 90th anniversary this week. Representative Mitchell Setzer, (R- Catawba), an ardent supporter of the Patrol, offered a delightful Representative Statement honoring the agency at Thursday’s House session. In addition, Representative Carolyn Logan, (D - Mecklenburg), who was the first African-American female trooper to serve on the Highway Patrol, provided a lovely reflection on her career with the organization.

Also this week, a committee substitute for Senate Bill 579, Prison Reform Act, was heard in Senate Judiciary. The revised bill directs the Legislative Program Evaluation Division to examine and identify alternative organizational and managerial structures for Adult Correction and Juvenile Justice, and to submit its findings and recommendations to the Program Evaluation Division and Justice and Public Safety Oversight Committees by May 1, 2020.
