Save the Date! NC RTT-ELC Grant Partners Meeting

NC's 2nd Annual Grant Partners Meeting scheduled for December 1

The NC RTT-ELC Grant Partners Meeting will be held December 1, 2015 at the McKimmon Center in Raleigh for invited participants. The meeting is designed to update participants on grant accomplishments, progress, plans for 2016, and the grant's impacts on early childhood systems building efforts in our State. RTT-ELC colleagues will come together to celebrate the accomplishments of the projects ending in 2015, learn more about those projects continuing into 2016, and work together to help guide NC's early childhood systems building beyond the grant.

Registration information and agenda will be provided soon.

NC's RTT-ELC Grant Approved for a 1 Year No-Cost Extension

Selected grant activities extended through 2016

North Carolina's plan for a no-cost extension of the RTT-ELC grant for past issues one year was approved by the US Department of Education and US Department of Health and Human Services, allowing North Carolina to continue selected grant projects through 2016. Extending the timeline will allow a more complete implementation of the selected projects. NC's RTT-ELC website has been updated to reflect the extended end dates for the grant activities included in the 2016 extension.

NC ECIDS is Highlighted in BUILD Initiative E-Book

Building Data Systems for Early Learning

North Carolina's Early Childhood Integrated Data System project (NC ECIDS) is highlighted as one of the States/projects included in a chapter of the new BUILD Initiative e-book. ChildTrend's Early Childhood Data Collaborative staff highlight North Carolina and other States' progress in collecting information through coordinated data systems that can be used to increase access to high-quality early learning.
