Insurance Companies Request Rate Hike for Dwelling Policies
Public Comment period runs from Dec. 2 through Dec. 30

RALEIGH—The North Carolina Department of Insurance received a Dwelling Insurance rate filing from the N.C. Rate Bureau on Wednesday, Nov. 30. The N.C. Rate Bureau, which is not part of the Department of Insurance and represents all companies writing property insurance in the state, has requested a statewide average rate increase of +19.6 percent, varying by territory, with a requested effective date of July 1, 2017. This filing includes a requested decrease of -16.6% for Fire policies and an increase of +37.3% for Extended Coverage (wind) policies, for a total statewide average increase of +19.0%.

Dwelling insurance policies are not homeowners insurance policies; dwelling policies are offered to non-owner occupied residences including rental properties, investment properties and other properties that are not occupied full-time by the property owner.

The Rate Bureau has also requested revisions to the current geographic rating territories. The proposed territory revisions are the same territory definitions applicable to homeowners' policies.

The filing will be reviewed by Department of Insurance experts to determine what, if any, rate adjustments are warranted. If NCDOI and the N.C. Rate Bureau do not initially agree on the proposed rate changes, a public hearing will be called in which both parties would present their cases for or against rate adjustments.

The North Carolina Department of Insurance will not rule on this filing until 2017.

The filing is available for public review on the Department of Insurance website (http://www.ncdoi.com/PC/Default.aspx) and the SERFF Filing Access (https://filingaccess.serff.com/sfa/home/NC). Enter the SERFF Tracking Number NCRI-130822384.

Opportunity for Public Comment

Notice is hereby given in accordance with G.S. 150B-21.2 that the NC Department of Commerce, Division of Employment Security intends to adopt the rule cited as 04 NCAC 24B .0107, amend the rules cited as 04 NCAC 24A .0105 and 24C .0506, and repeal the rule cited as 04 NCAC 24C .0601.

Public Hearing:
Date: December 30, 2016
Time: 11:00 a.m.
Location: Division of Employment Security, 700 Wade Avenue, Room A-120, Raleigh, NC 27611

Reason for Proposed Action: In 2015, the North Carolina General Assembly made certain changes to Chapter 96 of the North Carolina General Statutes involving the employment security laws (N.C. Session Law 2015-238). As a result, DES was required to undergo temporary rulemaking in order to make certain conforming changes to the administrative rules. These changes included adding certain definitions (04 NCAC 24A .0105), creating a new rule regarding valid job contacts A(04...
NCAC 24B .0107), and repealing certain provisions regarding post-decision relief requests for reconsideration (04 NCAC 24C .0506 and 04 NCAC 24C .0601). DES previously underwent temporary rulemaking to make this change, but due to administrative issues did not begin the permanent rulemaking process in a timely manner. The temporary rules are set to expire on December 10, 2016. As a result, the purpose of these proposed amendments, adoption and repeals are to reinstate the changes previously implemented through the temporary rulemaking process.

(1) "Additional claim" means the reopening of a valid initial claim for unemployment insurance benefits after a claimant, as defined in Item 1(b)(3) of this Rule, ceased filing a weekly certification as defined in G.S. 96-14.9, for one or more weeks due to intervening employment.

The first week of eligibility filed after a claim has been reopened shall constitute a waiting period week if all eligibility requirements set forth in G.S. 96-14.9 are met.

(2) "Agent state" means any state from which, or through which a claimant files a claim for benefits from another state.

(3) "Adjudicator" means an employee of DES appointed to conduct an informal investigation and render a determination as required by G.S. 96-15(b).

(4) "Appeal" means a submission by a party with statutory appeal rights requesting the Appeals Section of DES or the Board of Review to review a determination or decision that is adverse to that party.

(5) "Appeals Referee" or "Hearing Officer" means an attorney appointed to hear or decide an appeal from a determination by an adjudicator and issues involving the rights, status, and liabilities of an employer pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 96-4(q) or 96-15(c).

TITLE 15A – DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY

Notice is hereby given in accordance with G.S. 150B-21.2 that the Environmental Management Commission intends to amend the rule cited as 15A NCAC 13B .0840.

Link to agency website pursuant to G.S. 150B-19.1(c): http://deq.nc.gov/permits-regulations/rules-regulations/proposed-rules

Proposed Effective Date: May 1, 2017

Public Hearing:
Date: January 13, 2017
Time: 2:30 p.m.
Location: NC Department of Environmental Quality, 217 West Jones Street, Raleigh, NC 27603, Room 1210

Reason for Proposed Action: The rule is being amended at the Agency's request to reduce the burden on the regulated community and the agency while not increasing risk to human health and the environment. The amendment will decrease frequency of soil sampling at septage land application sites from once per year to once every other year, which reduces time and cost spent on sampling; and does not increase risk as historical sampling results do not indicate exceedances of federal standards for septage land application.

case hearing or litigation in any North Carolina factual situation presented; or

(f) A declaratory ruling is binding on the Board and on the person(s) requesting it unless it is altered or set aside by the court. The Board may not retroactively change a declaratory ruling, but nothing in this Section prevents the Board from prospectively changing a ruling.
(g) A declaratory ruling shall be deemed to be "in effect" until:
(1) the statute or rule interpreted by the declaratory
ruling is amended, altered, or repealed;
(2) the Board changes the declaratory ruling
prospectively for good reasons;
(3) any court sets aside the ruling in litigation between the Board and the party requesting the ruling; or
(4) until any court of the Appellate Division of the General Court of Justice shall construe the statute or rule which is the subject of the declaratory ruling in a manner plainly irreconcilable with the declaratory ruling.
(h) The requesting party may agree to allow the Board to issue a

11 NCAC 06A .0809 was unanimously approved.

Manufactured Housing Board
The Commission objected to 11 NCAC 08 .0904 due to lack of statutory authority and failure to comply with the APA. Specifically, the Commission found that the amended rule was approved for publication and adopted by the Department rather than the proper authority: the Manufactured Housing Board. In addition, the Commission found that existing language of the rule exceeds the statutory language of G.S. 143-143.10, as modified in Session Law 2015-286, Section 2.2, because the rule purports to impose requirements on applicants for licensure as manufactured home manufacturers or dealers that were explicitly removed from the statute by the General Assembly.

15A NCAC 10B .0106 was unanimously approved.

Department of Natural and Cultural Resources
All rules were unanimously approved.

The Commission objected to 21 NCAC 63 .0505 in accordance with G.S. 150B-21.10(2). The Commission objected to the following provisions in this Rule based on ambiguity:

- Line 5 – social workers shall "know the areas of competence of other professionals"
• Item (1) – social workers shall “treat with respect and represent accurately the views, qualifications and findings of colleagues, and when expressing judgment on these matters shall do so fairly and through appropriate channels.”
• Item (2) – “In referring clients, social workers shall refer to professionals who are recognized by their respective profession as competent to carry out the services required.”
• Item (3) – “If a social worker's services are sought by an individual who is already receiving similar services from another professional, consideration for the client's welfare shall be paramount. It requires the social worker to proceed with great caution, carefully considering both the existing professional relationship and the therapeutic issues involved.”
• Item (4) – Social workers “shall evaluate fairly the performance of those under their supervision,” shall not “harass,” and “shall not abuse the power inherent in their position.”
• Item (5) – “unethical or incompetent behavior” and “take equally appropriate steps to assist and defend colleagues unjustly charged with such conduct.”

The Commission objected to the above language as it is unclear as to what is expected of the social worker in carrying out these provisions.

Anna Baird Choi, with the Law Office of Nichols, Choi & Lee, PLLC, representing the Board, addressed the Commission.

Elizabeth Pope, the Assistant Executive Director with the Board, addressed the Commission.

Admitted into evidence was Petitioners’ Exhibits 1 – 3 and 5-10 and Respondent’s Exhibits 1 - 31.

BASED UPON careful consideration of the sworn testimony of the witnesses presented at the hearing and the entire record in this proceeding, the Undersigned makes the following findings of fact. In making the findings of fact, the Undersigned has weighed all the evidence and has assessed the credibility of the witnesses by taking into account the appropriate factors for judging credibility, including but not limited to the demeanor of the witness, any interests, bias, or prejudice the witness may have, the opportunity of the witness to see, hear, know or remember the facts or occurrences about which the witness testified, whether the testimony of the witness is reasonable, and whether the testimony is consistent with all other believable evidence in the case. From the evidence presented, the undersigned makes the following Findings of Fact.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioners timely appealed to the Office of Administrative Hearings from the Notice of Final Determination issued by the Department on August 24, 2015.

2. Since 2010 to the present, Lynn Baldwin and Vera Summerville have resided at 5311 Winterset Drive, Greensboro, North Carolina. As of the date of the hearing, Lynn Baldwin and Vera Summerville have been married for approximately 10 years.

4. From 1972-1977, Baldwin was employed full-time as a plant engineer with Carolina Power & Light. From 1977-1985, Baldwin was employed full-time as a design engineer with DuPont in Kinston, North Carolina.

5. From 1985-2008, Baldwin was employed full-time with General Motors Corporation (“GM”). Baldwin was originally hired as a District Manager and was later promoted to Senior District Manager. While employed with GM, Baldwin worked in Auburn Hills, Michigan, St. Louis, Missouri and Tulsa, Oklahoma. During his last five years with GM, Baldwin worked an average of 50 hours per week and had an annual income of approximately $95,000 to $105,000.

6. In the mid 1970’s, Baldwin purchased a Dodge Roadrunner and began bracket racing. At that time and for the next ten years, Baldwin engaged in this racing activity for pleasure. Baldwin has participated in bracket racing since the mid 1970’s to the present.
7. For all years that he has participated in bracket racing, Baldwin has driven the same Dodge Roadrunner. It has the original body but not the same engine and transmission. During the tax years at issue, Baldwin paid various automobile service centers for the repair, maintenance and improvements to the vehicle.

8. Sometime in 1984-85, Baldwin received a notice from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") regarding a 1099 issued to him for winnings from bracket racing that Baldwin failed to report on his federal income tax return. At that time, Baldwin decided to file a Schedule C with his federal tax return to claim expenses from the racing activity. Baldwin has filed a Schedule C with his federal income tax returns for the 1985 through 2014 tax years. Starting in 1984 Baldwin's racing was not just for fun. He realized he was better at it than average and decided to see if he could make it into a business. He had to compete or otherwise loose his skills at driving. Moreover, in order for Baldwin to win a championship he could not skip races as he had to be present during every points race.

9. From 1985 until 2008, Baldwin's primary source of income was derived from employment unrelated to the racing activity, which was his employment with GM. In 2008, Baldwin opted for early retirement from GM and received many benefits as an incentive to retire early.

10. Beginning in the mid-1980s, Baldwin declared his racing activities on the appropriate business tax forms when filing in the states of Missouri, Michigan and Oklahoma. None of those states requested supporting documentation regarding his tax returns.

11. In 2010 after retiring from GM, Baldwin moved from Tulsa, Oklahoma to his current residence in Greensboro, North Carolina.

12. For the 2010, 2011 and 2012 tax years, Petitioners had income unrelated to the racing activity, which was in the amount of $64,133 in 2010, $58,757 in 2011, and $77,447 in 2012.

13. For the 2010, 2011, and 2012 tax years, Lynn Baldwin and Vera Summerville filed joint North Carolina individual income tax returns. For each tax year at issue, Petitioners filed a Schedule C with their federal income tax return to deduct certain expenses claimed from a racing activity which generated a loss for each tax year. As a result of the loss claimed on the Schedule C, Petitioners reported no taxable income on their North Carolina tax returns and received a refund for the 2010, 2011 and 2012 tax years.

14. During the 2010, 2011 and 2012 tax years for the racing activity, Baldwin did not maintain a business plan, accounting books, general ledger, annual budget, expense forecast, balance sheets, end of year reports or monthly reports to reconcile income and expenses. Baldwin did not attempt to determine the financial breakeven point for the racing activity and did not attempt to determine how to make a profit with the racing activity.
15. For the 2010, 2011 and 2012 tax years, Baldwin saved receipts of expenses for the racing activity, categorized them and kept them in a drawer in a file. At the end of each tax year these expenses were added against the winnings from racing as reported on the Schedule C.

16. For all years that he has engaged in bracket racing, Baldwin never had an investor, sponsor, promoter or financial advisor for his racing activity. Baldwin stated that his business was a sole proprietorship. He would submit his expenses and winnings yearly to H & R Block in a handwritten summarized manner. He did not send them any supporting documentation as they did not ask for any. He did not send individual receipts but would add up expenses and winnings and submit a summary. Baldwin did recall there was a time when H & R Block did ask for some supporting documentation, but it was once and he could not recall what year it was.

17. Vera (Summerville) Baldwin testified. She was not involved in any record keeping regarding her husband’s racing activities. She stated the only document she sent to H & R Block was a form with her social security number on it. After the tax return was prepared, she and her husband viewed the preparer’s computer and the forms being shown, and afterwards signed as directed by the preparer.

18. For each tax year at issue, Baldwin devoted approximately 1,040 man hours annually to the racing activity but was never paid for any of the hours he spent in the racing activity. A labor expense was not reported on the Schedule C for each tax year at issue. Baldwin did have a truck that was used strictly for racing, for pulling his trailer and incurred some expenses for it. Expenses for his racing activity also included entry fees.

19. For the 1997 through 2013 tax years, Baldwin reported 17 consecutive years of losses from the racing activity during this period. In the past twenty years, Baldwin only reported a profit from the racing activity in 1996 in the amount of $982 and in 2014 in the amount of $180.

20. For the tax years at issue, Baldwin reported losses from the racing activity in the amount of $4,991.25 for 2010, $11,562.59 for 2011 and $8,055.72 for 2012.

21. For the 2010, 2011 and 2012 tax years, Baldwin’s winnings, expenses and losses from the racing activity and Petitioners’ income unrelated to the racing activity as reported on their federal income tax returns were as follows:

22. Without Petitioners’ substantial income unrelated to racing, Baldwin could not sustain years of losses from the racing activity, including the 2010, 2011 and 2012 tax years.
23. Eddie Finch who was employed at the North Carolina Department of Revenue at the time of the hearing testified. In positions ranging from Auditor to Assistant Director of was called the Personal Taxes Division, Finch dealt with individual income tax. In examining the relevant sections in the Code of Federal Regulations, Finch reviewed certain factors as outlined in the Code in connection with assessing whether this was an activity being engaged in for profit. Finch concluded that Baldwin was not engaged in the business for profit. The Department disallowed the losses claimed by Petitioners on the Schedule C of their federal income tax returns for all three tax years at issue, which resulted in additional North Carolina tax, interest and penalties due and owing from Petitioners.

BASED UPON the foregoing findings of fact and upon the preponderance or greater weight of the evidence in the whole record, the Undersigned makes the following Conclusions of Law.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Office of Administrative Hearings has personal and subject matter jurisdiction over this contested case. The parties received proper notice of the hearing in this matter.

2. To the extent that certain portions of the foregoing Findings of Fact constitute mixed issues of law and fact, such Findings of Fact shall be deemed incorporated herein by reference as Conclusions of Law. A court need not make findings as to every fact which arises from the evidence, and need only find those facts that are material to the settlement of the dispute. Flanders v. Gabriel, 110 N.C. App. 438, 440, 429 S.E.2d 611, 612, aff'd, 335 N.C. 234, 436 S.E.2d 588 (1993).

3. The burden of proof rests on the Petitioner challenging an agency decision. Overcash v. N.C. Dept. of Env’t & Natural Res., 179 N.C. App. 697, 704, 635 S.E.2d 442, 447 (2006). The Petitioner bears the burden of proof by a greater weight or preponderance of the evidence of showing that the Agency has substantially prejudiced its rights as well as whether the agency acted outside its authority, acted erroneously, acted arbitrarily and capriciously, used improper procedure, or failed to act as required by law or rule. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 150B-23. See also Surgical Care Affiliates, L.L.C v. N.C. Dep’t of Health & Human Servs., Div. of Health Serv. Regulation, Certificate of Need Section, 762 S.E.2d 468, 474-75 (N.C. Ct. App. 2014), review denied, 768 S.E.2d 564 (N.C. 2015).

5. In accordance with Painter v. Wake County Bd of Ed., 217 S.E.2d 650, 288 N.C. 165 (1975), absent evidence to the contrary, it will be presumed that "public officials will discharge their duties in good faith and exercise their powers in accord with the spirit and purpose of the law. Every reasonable intendment will be made in support of the presumption.” The burden is upon the party asserting the contrary to overcome the presumption by competent and substantial evidence. "Substantial evidence is such relevant evidence as a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion." Rusher v. Tominson, 119 N.C. App. 458, 465, 459 S.E. 2d 285, 289 (1995), aff'd, 343 N.C. 119, 468 S.E.2d 57 (1996); Comm'r of Ins. V Fire Ins. Rating Bureau, 292 N.C. 70, 80, 231 S.E.2d 882, 888 (1977). "It is more than a scintilla or a permissible inference." Lackey v. Dept. of Human Resources, 306 N.C. 231, 238, 293 S.E.2d 171, 177 (1982).

6. In weighing evidence which detracts from the agency decision," [i]f, after all of the record has been reviewed, substantial competent evidence is found which would support the agency ruling, the ruling must stand." Little v. Bd. of Dental Examiners, 64 N.C. App. 67, 69, 306 S.E.2d 534, 536 (1983) (citations omitted).

7. For residents of the State, North Carolina taxable income means the taxpayer’s taxable income determined under the Internal Revenue Code, adjusted as provided in G.S. 105-134.6 and G.S 105-134.7. N.C.G.S. § 105-134.5(a) (2012).

9. Section 162(a) of the U.S. Tax Code allows deductions for all ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during a taxable year in carrying on a trade or business. 26 USC § 162. In the case of an activity engaged in by an individual, if such activity is not engaged in for profit, no deduction attributable to such activity shall be allowed under this chapter except as provided in this section. 26 USC § 183(a).

10. The test for determining whether a taxpayer is carrying on an activity for profit is whether the taxpayer's actual and honest objective in engaging in the activity is to make a profit. Dreicer v. Commissioner, 78 T.C. 642, 645 (1982). Greater weight is to be given to objective facts than to a taxpayer's statement of intent. See Dreicer at 645.

12. The Undersigned has examined the Manner in Which the Taxpayer Carried On the Activity. 26 CFR § 1.183-2(b)(1). Petitioner did not maintain books or written records, had no formal business plan, and did not create annual budget and expense forecasts relating to bracket racing. Although a taxpayer is not required to maintain a sophisticated system of accounting, the taxpayer should keep documents that allow the taxpayer to make informed business decisions.
Burger v. Commissioner, 809 F.2d 355, 359 (7th Cir. 1987). Petitioners did save receipts from expenses related to bracket racing; however, there is no evidence that Petitioners used these receipts as a management tool to reduce expenses or increase profitability. This factor favors Respondent.

13. The Undersigned has examined the Expertise of the Taxpayer or His Advisors. 26 CFR § 1.183-2(b)(2). Petitioner Baldwin has extensive experience with drag racing and has been involved in the activity for over 40 years. However, the focus here is on expertise and preparation with regard to the economic aspects of the activity. Wesinger v. Commissioner, T.C. Memo. 1999-372. Petitioners have not shown that they possessed the requisite expertise regarding the business aspects of bracket racing or that they relied on anyone who had that expertise. The fact that Petitioners did not seek advice on the economic aspects of the bracket racing activity suggests that Petitioners lacked a profit objective. See Filios v. Commissioner, T.C. Memo. 1996-92, affd. 224 F.3d 16 (1st Cir. 2000). This factor favors Respondent.

14. The Undersigned has examined the Time and Effort Expended in Carrying On the Activity. 26 CFR § 1.183-2(b)(3). Petitioner dedicated significant time and effort to his bracket racing activity. While this fact tends to favor Petitioners’ position, Petitioner Baldwin also derived substantial personal enjoyment from drag racing. On balance, this factor is neutral.

15. The Undersigned has examined the Expectation That Assets May Appreciate in Value. 26 CFR § 1.183-2(b)(4). When property's appreciation in value is independent of the claimed business activity, the gain realized from a sale of the property will not be a significant factor in evaluating the nature of the activity in question. Ruben v. Commissioner, T.C. Memo. 1986-260, affd. without published opinion 852 F.2d 1290 (9th Cir. 1988). Petitioners failed to show that any potential increase in value of the racing car, or any other asset, was attributable to Petitioner Baldwin's success in the racing activity rather than the result of the value of labor and newly purchased component parts. This factor favors Respondent.

16. The Undersigned has examined the Success of Taxpayer in Other Activities. 26 CFR § 1.183-2(b)(5). Petitioner Baldwin was not involved in any other business activities apart from his former employment with and retirement from General Motors Corporation. This factor favors Respondent.

17. The Undersigned has examined the Taxpayer's History of Income or Losses. 26 CFR § 1.183-2(b)(6). Petitioners incurred losses for each tax year at issue. In fact, from 1997 through 2013, Petitioners incurred 17 consecutive years of losses. During the tax years at issue, Petitioners received only $7,359 in cash winnings while spending $32,049.56 on the racing activity. On the basis of Petitioners’ record of significant years of losses, it is unlikely that Petitioners will be able to recoup his expenses. This factor favors Respondent.

18. The Undersigned has examined the Amount of Occasional Profits, If Any. 26 CFR § 1.183-2(b)(7). With the exception of small cash awards, Petitioner Baldwin’s racing activity produced no income during the tax years at issue. The expenses incurred in the racing activity were over 4.5 times the amount of income earned. This factor favors Respondent.
19. The Undersigned has examined the Financial Status of the Taxpayer. 26 CFR § 1.183-2(b)(8). “The rationale for this rule is that a taxpayer with substantial income unrelated to the activity can more easily afford to operate the activity as a hobby.” Emerson v. Commissioner, T.C. Memo. 2000-137. Petitioners had substantial income unrelated to racing, totaling $200,337 during the tax years at issue, with an average of $66,779 of income unrelated to racing per year. Substantial income from sources unrelated to the activity in question, particularly if losses from the activity generate substantial tax benefits, indicate that an activity is not engaged in for profit. This factor favors Respondent.

20. The Undersigned has examined the Elements of Personal Pleasure. 26 CFR § 1.183-2(b)(9). Petitioner undoubtedly obtained enjoyment from this racing activity. It is not necessary that an activity be engaged in with the exclusive intention of making a profit, if for example other investments would more likely be profitable. This factor favors Respondent.

21. Petitioners' racing activity was an “activity . . . not engaged in for profit” within the meaning of 26 USC § 183. Accordingly, the losses claimed by Petitioners related to the racing activity for the 2010, 2011 and 2012 tax years are disallowed and not deductible.

BASED UPON the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law the Undersigned makes the following Final Decision.

DECISION

The Undersigned finds and holds that there is sufficient evidence in the record to properly and lawfully support the Conclusions of Law cited above. The Undersigned enters the following Final Decision based upon the preponderance of the evidence, having given due regard to the demonstrated knowledge and expertise of the Agency with respect to facts and inferences within the specialized knowledge of the Agency as required under N.C. Gen. Stat. § 150B-34.

The Undersigned holds that Petitioners failed to carry their burden of proof by a greater weight of the evidence that the Respondent erred in its Notice of Final Determination. The finder of fact cannot properly act upon the weight of evidence, in favor of the one having the ones, unless it overbears, in some degree, the weight upon the other side. The weight of Petitioner’s evidence does not overbear in that degree required by law the weight of evidence of Respondent to the ultimate issues.

Based on foregoing the Undersigned determines that the Department’s Notice of Final Determination is UPHLD in its entirety and Petitioners are liable for the tax, penalties, and interest set forth below.
