Purpose

The Council of Internal Auditing has established the North Carolina Internal Audit Award of Excellence. This award is intended to acknowledge and express appreciation for outstanding accomplishments made by an individual internal auditor or an internal audit function within North Carolina State government. The accomplishments need not fall entirely within the scope of normal auditing duties, but shall be in the nature of a major contribution reflecting credit on the person and internal auditing service provided to the State of North Carolina.

Criteria/Definition

Three are three criteria for this award dedication, contribution and innovation which are define below. The performance which the selection is based must be clearly above and beyond that which would be expected from a competent internal auditor. There are many possibilities for varying levels of performance above normal expectation. These may include but are not limited to:

Dedication: going beyond the normal requirements of an internal auditor’s job duties and responsibilities which supports the devotion and/or passion to their career as an internal auditor. Some areas that can be addressed are: 1) obtaining professional certifications; 2) serving as a subject matter expert in a multi-agency or internal workgroup/task force; 3) mentoring or assisting junior internal auditors; 3) assisting peer; 4) devoting more than 40 per week to their career; etc.

Contribution: promote, encourage or further the profession of internal auditing. Some areas include: 1) serving as an officer, committee or board member, or volunteering with the National or Local Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors; 2) promoting the profession of internal auditing by performing speaking engagements for students, agencies staff, or at conference and training events; and 3) publishing books, articles, research papers or test questions; etc.

Innovation: reengineered, implemented new methods, or utilized new devices to improve processes or achieve better results within their internal audit functions or across the State. Some areas include: 1) utilizing computer assisted audit tools to improve audit administration, data extraction and analytics, or continuous auditing; 2) establishing new methods to reduce audit cycle time or tracking management’s corrective action; 3) utilizing an intern or guest auditor program to increase resources; etc.
Please Remember these definitions are not all inclusive. If you know of an internal auditor or group of internal auditors that goes above and beyond normal expectations of their job requirements to improve, or promote internal auditing they would qualify for nomination.

Program Administration

The Office State Budget and Management’s Internal Audit (OSBM) section staffs the Council of Internal Auditing and will be responsible for administering the North Carolina Internal Audit Award of Excellence Program.

Selection Committee

The selection committee shall be comprised of four individuals.
1. A staff member from OSBM – Internal Audit.
2. The winner from the previous year.
3. A volunteer auditor from a participating university.
4. A volunteer from a participating State agency.

The selection committee will narrow the applicants down to three nominees. All nominations will be provided to the Council along with the three top candidates. The Council will have the responsibility of making the final selection.

Interviews

To ensure the best qualified candidate is selected for the award, the Council will hold in-person interviews with each candidate. The candidate will briefly explain how they go above and beyond their normal job requirements in the areas of dedication, contribution and innovation to promote, educate or further the profession of internal auditing. The Council member will have the opportunity to ask any additional questions.

The Director or Program Officer will be responsible for coordinating the interviews. The nomination package along with the interview questions will be provided to the candidate in advance. The Council members and candidates will have the option to call-in or attend the interviews in-person.

Award Ceremony
The award will be presented annually by the State Auditor. The presentation will take place in December at the Office of the State Controller’s Financial Conference. A plaque will be presented to the award winner and a permanent record (plaque) will be housed in the Office of Internal Auditing within OSBM.

Notification

The award winner will be notified prior to the award ceremony. Candidates not receiving the award will also be notified. The Council Chair will send both the award and the regret letters. Once the award winner is honored at the ceremony, an email will be sent to all interested parties.

Questions or Additional Information

If you have any questions or need additional information you can contact Office of Internal Audit section of the Office of Budget and Management at (919) 807-4700.
