Class Concept
Positions in this classification assist in the development and review of standard contracts. Positions in this class help develop and prepare specifications, requests for proposals, and invitations for bids, and help draft contracts and assist contracts specialists in the development of solicitations. Positions may assist contract specialists in the management of a portion of larger, more complex contracts. Work requires the assistance in the development of procedures and schedules for inspecting and evaluating contracts or purchase orders. Positions assist agency contracts personnel in preparing bid specifications, evaluating bids submitted by vendors, and conducting follow up inspections to determine that delivered commodity meets specifications of contract. Work is performed under the general supervision of the supervisor and is regularly reviewed for accuracy and technical assistance.
