PHYSICAL THERAPY SUPERVISOR II

DESCRIPTION OF WORK
Work in this class involves the supervision and administration of a medium size department of physical therapy with a variety of services and programs in an institution, hospital or local agency. Employee is responsible for planning, developing, coordinating, and administering all activities within a physical therapy department. The department may include other professional services or close coordination with other services. Work involves the determination of the extent and nature of physical therapy services needed, implementing these services, participation in clinical training programs for student interns, and the development and supervision of in-service training programs for subordinate staff is performed under the general supervision of medical, non-medical, or rehabilitation director and is reviewed and evaluated through periodic conferences and reports and as evidenced by program effectiveness.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES PERFORMED
Plans, develops, coordinates, and supervises all activities within a physical therapy department. Advises community-based organizations such as day care centers, group homes on developing and implementing a program of physical therapy. Plans, develops, and supervises in-service training programs for student interns, subordinate staff, nursing, and other personnel in areas pertaining to physical therapy. Surveys area and secures data to assist in the identification of needs and resource available to implementing physical therapy aspects of total patient care programs. Consults with other professional personnel in furthering the integration and support of physical therapy services. Plans, establishes, and participates in in-patient and outpatient clinics, clinical and staff conferences, and interprets changes in policy to subordinate staff members. Develops reporting procedures and forms for use within the department and for relaying pertinent physical therapy data to medical, nursing, and other professional personnel. Coordinates inter-departmental meetings. Manages departmental recruiting, promotions, disciplinary problems, evaluations, and other employee relations problems. Develops, maintains, and evaluates budgets, equipment, and other program needs. Performs related duties as required.

RECRUITMENT STANDARDS

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities
Thorough knowledge of physical therapy principles, techniques, methods, modalities, and their proper application. General knowledge of basic public health principles and practices. Ability to instruct and supervise subordinate staff members, student interns, and other medical personnel in physical therapy methods and techniques. Ability to plan and conduct staff conferences and in-service training programs for subordinate staff. Ability to coordinate department activities. Ability to prepare and evaluate reports, medical histories, and departmental records. Ability to communicate and work effectively with patients, patients’ families, medics nursing, and other professional personnel and to deal tactfully with the public.

Minimum Education and Experience
Licensed as a Physical Therapist in the State of North Carolina and three years of experience as a physical therapist; one year of which should be as a supervisor; or an equivalent combination of education and experience.