Dismal Swamp State Park
2294 US 17 North
South Mills, NC 27976
252-771-6593
dismal.swamp@ncparks.gov
GPS: 36.5057, -76.3551

Located in North Carolina’s northeastern border with Virginia, Dismal Swamp State Park provides numerous recreational opportunities. The area surrounding the park has a rich history intertwining with George Washington, the Underground Railroad and Prohibition. The park provides public access to the Great Dismal Swamp, the largest remaining swamp in the eastern United States, and its unique and abundant plant life and wildlife.

Fun Facts
- The park was established in 1974.
- At one time, the swamp covered 1.28 million acres.
- Dismal Swamp has a 22-mile long canal.
- The swamp is one of the largest pieces of undeveloped land in the eastern U.S.
- The area around the swamp is covered in peat soil — which can be from 3 to 15 feet deep.
- Dismal Swamp was an integral part of the Underground Railroad, and home to one of the largest maroon colonies in the US.
- To European settlers, “dismal” meant swamp.
- The rich, coffee brown color of the water comes from the tannins in tree leaves.
- The entrance has a one-of-a-kind hydraulic swing bridge.

Experience the Park!

10 Trails
20+ Miles of Hiking

Activities

FAUNA
- Wild turkey
- Bobwhite
- Deer
- Marsh rabbit
- Raccoon
- Black-throated green warbler
- Opposum
- Gray fox
- Bobcat
- Black bear

The swamp is said to be haunted by ghosts.

Because Dismal Swamp is a drier swamp, there are more red maple than white cedar trees and cypress.

Many fruits grow wild at Dismal Swamp: blackberry, persimmons and blueberries.

ncparks.gov