ACTIVITIES

Education and Events: Rangers hold regularly scheduled educational and interpretive programs about Morrow Mountain State Park. Contact the park office to arrange a special exploration for your group or class. The nature museum, near the park office, is open daily. Exhibits describe the geology of the Uwharrie Mountains, the American Indians of Morrow Mountain and plants and animals of the area.

Camping: Morrow Mountain State Park offers tent and RV camping, primitive hike-in camping, and group camping. Visit the website or contact the park office for more information about amenities, facilities, and accessible campsites.

Vacation cabins are located in a wooded section of the park. Each cabin has two bedrooms, bathroom, living area, fireplace and kitchen with dining area. During the summer months, cabins must be rented by the week. The cabins may be rented for a minimum of two nights throughout the rest of the year. Pets are not allowed in the cabins or in the surrounding area. Cabin #6 is fully accessible.

Picnicking: The lower picnic area beyond the pool has a large accessible 10-table picnic shelter and a six-table picnic shelter with a fireplace. Morrow Mountain Summit also has a four-table picnic shelter with a fireplace. When not reserved, shelters are available free of charge on a first come, first served basis.

Trails: Morrow Mountain has more than 15 miles of hiking trails. See the trail legend for distance and difficulty. Equestrians may enjoy the park from 16 miles of bridle trails. There are no facilities for camping with horses. All horses brought into the park must have proof of being tested for Equine Infectious Anemia.

Fishing: Cast your line on Lake Tillery or fish from the river banks. Game fish include largemouth bass, striped bass, white bass, crappie, perch, bluegill and catfish. A North Carolina fishing license is required.

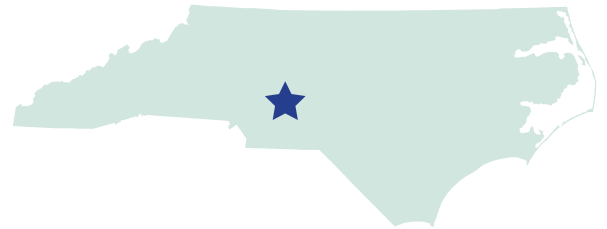

Swimming: The swimming pool is open June through Labor Day, all swimming facilities are accessible for persons with disabilities. The bathhouse includes restrooms, changing rooms and showers. Children will enjoy playing in the adjacent kiddie pool. A modest fee is charged.

Boating: A boat ramp at the end of the park road will put you on the water. A small parking area is available to park your trailer. A large parking lot along the lake provides access to the boathouse, fishing pier and two hiking trails.

LOCATION

Morrow Mountain State Park is located in Stanly County, six miles east of Albemarle and is accessible from N.C. highways 24/27, 73 and 740.
